B1 THRESHOLD

Many companies are trying to make green packaging now. Packaging is important for selling things, but a lot of it is bad for the environment. This is because making packaging uses a lot of energy. Also, things like boxes and wrappers are often hard to throw away when we don't need them anymore.

People in many countries know that the way we live now is hurting the environment. They want to protect the environment for the future. So, politicians and scientists are trying to find ways to save energy and deal with waste in a better way that helps the environment.

For packaging, it's important that it can be recycled or biodegradable. This means it can be used again or it will break down naturally. For example, instead of putting old newspapers and glass bottles in the normal rubbish, people are asked to put them in special containers. Then, the materials can be reused. Some waste from our homes, like vegetable skins, is biodegradable. It breaks down slowly until it disappears.

Things made by people are not so easy to get rid of. Plastic goods and packaging create waste that is very hard to dispose of. This means we need big landfill sites to bury the plastic waste underground. This could cause problems for people in the future.

Industrial waste is also a big problem. Water from factories often has chemicals in it. These chemicals can pollute the water supply. We need to watch factory waste carefully to stop this from happening. Factories must monitor their waste.

New technologies, like nuclear power, have made the waste problem worse. Getting rid of nuclear waste is very worrying because it is radioactive. This means it could be dangerous to living things. It is concerning.

Because many people have a good standard of living, we have a lot more waste. This could be very bad for the ecology of the planet. We need to take action quickly to save our environment from a possible disaster. We need to take action.

B2 VANTAGE

Companies are currently in a race to develop eco-friendly packaging. While packaging plays a crucial role in modern marketing, much of it poses a threat to our planet. This is mainly because producing packaging consumes vast amounts of energy, and once it becomes waste, materials like cartons and wrappers are often difficult to dispose of properly.

In many countries, people are increasingly aware of the damage that modern lifestyles are inflicting on the environment. Many are now actively seeking ways to protect the environment for future generations. As a result, politicians and scientists are seriously looking into energy conservation and waste management, aiming to make them more environmentally sustainable.

In the realm of packaging, it's essential that materials are either recyclable or biodegradable. For instance, rather than simply throwing newspapers and glass bottles into regular household waste, people in several countries are encouraged to use designated containers for recycling. Certain household waste, like vegetable peelings, is naturally biodegradable, meaning it decomposes naturally over time.

However, man-made materials are not so easily dealt with. Plastic goods and packaging create waste that is particularly challenging to eliminate. This leads to the need for enormous landfill sites where plastic waste is buried underground, potentially causing problems for future generations. This also means the waste is not being repurposed.

Industrial waste presents a similar challenge, as factory effluent often contains chemicals that can pollute water sources. Factory waste must be carefully monitored to prevent such pollution. It's important to implement safety measures to prevent this.

Technological advancements, including nuclear power, have further exacerbated the waste problem. The disposal of nuclear waste is particularly concerning due to its radioactivity, which potentially endangers life. This waste is a severe hazard.

The high standard of living enjoyed in many countries has led to a significant increase in waste production. This could have a devastating impact on the planet's ecology. There's no doubt that decisive action must be taken urgently to protect our environment from potential disaster. It's crucial to promote sustainable practices to ensure a healthier future for all.

C1 ADVANCED

In today's marketplace, manufacturers are locked in a competitive struggle to develop and market environmentally sound packaging solutions. While packaging plays an undeniably crucial role in contemporary marketing strategies, its conventional forms often pose a significant threat to environmental sustainability. This threat stems primarily from two key factors: the considerable energy expenditure associated with the production of such packaging and the inherent difficulties in managing its disposal once it enters the waste stream.

Heightened public awareness of the detrimental impact of modern lifestyles on the environment has become pervasive in most countries. Consequently, a growing number of citizens are actively engaging with the principles of environmental conservation, driven by a commitment to safeguarding the planet for future generations. In light of this increasing concern, both policymakers and scientists are now scrutinising energy conservation and waste disposal practices with a view to rendering them more ecologically responsible.

With respect to packaging, the imperative lies in ensuring that it is either readily recyclable or fully biodegradable. For instance, a number of countries actively encourage citizens to segregate newspapers and glass bottles from general household waste, directing them to designated collection points, thereby facilitating the recycling process. Certain types of household waste, such as vegetable peelings, exhibit natural biodegradability, decomposing gradually until they are fully assimilated back into the environment.

However, the disposal of manufactured goods presents a more complex challenge. Plastic goods and packaging, in particular, constitute a waste stream that is notoriously difficult to manage. This necessitates the creation of extensive landfill sites for the subterranean burial of plastic waste, a practice that may have far-reaching implications for future generations. It could be argued that this is simply kicking the can down the road.

Equally problematic is the issue of industrial waste. Factory effluent often contains chemical compounds that can contaminate water supplies. To mitigate this risk, rigorous monitoring of factory waste is essential. Only then can we ensure that these pollutants are not leached into the surrounding environment.

Technological advancements, particularly those involving nuclear power, have further exacerbated the waste management problem. The disposal of nuclear waste is a matter of particular concern due to its radioactive nature and the potential hazards it poses to living organisms. The safe storage of nuclear waste is a global challenge, requiring a multi-faceted approach.

The elevated standard of living enjoyed by many nations has resulted in a dramatic surge in waste generation. This trend portends a dire impact on the planet's ecological balance. Without question, decisive action is urgently required to safeguard our environment from potential catastrophe. It is now imperative that we bite the bullet and implement sustainable practices to mitigate the environmental damage already done, and to prevent further degradation.

UZ TARJIMA

B1 Ko'plab kompaniyalar hozir ekologik qadoqlashni yo'lga qo'yishga harakat qilmoqda. Qadoqlash narsalarni sotish uchun muhim, lekin uning ko'p qismi atrof-muhit uchun zararli. Buning sababi, qadoqlashni tayyorlash juda ko'p energiya sarflaydi. Shuningdek, qutilar va o'rash qog'ozlari kabi narsalarni bizga kerak bo'lmaganda tashlab yuborish ko'pincha qiyin.

Ko'p mamlakatlardagi odamlar bizning hozirgi turmush tarzimiz atrof-muhitga zarar yetkazayotganini bilishadi. Ular kelajak uchun atrof-muhitni himoya qilishni xohlashadi. Shunday qilib, siyosatchilar va olimlar energiyani tejash va atrof-muhitga yordam beradigan yaxshiroq usulda chiqindilarni bartaraf etish yo'llarini topishga harakat qilmoqdalar.

Qadoqlash uchun uning qayta ishlanishi yoki bioparçalanadigan bo'lishi muhim. Bu shuni anglatadiki, uni qayta ishlatish mumkin yoki u tabiiy ravishda parchalanadi. Misol uchun, eski gazetalarni va shisha idishlarni oddiy axlatga tashlash o'rniga, odamlardan ularni maxsus konteynerlarga tashlash so'raladi. Keyin materiallar qayta ishlatilishi mumkin. Uyimizdan chiqadigan ba'zi chiqindilar, masalan, sabzavot po'stlog'i bioparçalanadi. U asta-sekin parchalanib, yo'q bo'lib ketadi.

Odamlar tomonidan yaratilgan narsalarni yo'q qilish oson emas. Plastik mahsulotlar va qadoqlash juda qiyin bo'lgan chiqindilarni yaratadi. Bu shuni anglatadiki, bizga plastik chiqindilarni yer ostiga ko'mish uchun katta poligonlar kerak. Bu kelajakda odamlarga muammo tug'dirishi mumkin.

Sanoat chiqindilari ham katta muammo. Zavodlardan chiqadigan suv ko'pincha tarkibida kimyoviy moddalar bo'ladi. Bu kimyoviy moddalar suv ta'minotini ifloslantirishi mumkin. Biz buni oldini olish uchun zavod chiqindilarini diqqat bilan kuzatishimiz kerak. Fabrikalar o'z chiqindilarini nazorat qilishlari kerak.

Yadroviy energiya kabi yangi texnologiyalar chiqindi muammosini yanada yomonlashtirdi. Yadroviy chiqindilarni yo'q qilish juda tashvishli, chunki u radioaktiv. Bu shuni anglatadiki, u tirik mavjudotlar uchun xavfli bo'lishi mumkin. Bu tashvishli.

Ko'p odamlarning turmush darajasi yaxshi bo'lganligi sababli, bizda chiqindilar ko'proq. Bu sayyoramizning ekologiyasi uchun juda yomon bo'lishi mumkin. Atrof-muhitimizni mumkin bo'lgan ofatdan saqlab qolish uchun tezda chora ko'rishimiz kerak. Biz chora ko'rishimiz kerak.

B2 Kompaniyalar hozirda ekologik toza qadoqlashni ishlab chiqish poygasida. Qadoqlash zamonaviy marketingda muhim rol o'ynasa-da, uning ko'p qismi sayyoramizga tahdid soladi. Buning asosiy sababi shundaki, qadoqlash ishlab chiqarish katta miqdordagi energiyani iste'mol qiladi va u chiqindiga aylangach, karton va o'rov materiallari kabi materiallarni to'g'ri utilizatsiya qilish ko'pincha qiyin.

Ko'pgina mamlakatlarda odamlar zamonaviy turmush tarzi atrof-muhitga yetkazayotgan zarardan tobora ko'proq xabardor bo'lib bormoqda. Ko'pchilik hozirda kelajak avlodlar uchun atrof-muhitni himoya qilish yo'llarini faol izlamoqda. Natijada, siyosatchilar va olimlar energiyani tejash va chiqindilarni boshqarishni jiddiy o'rganib chiqmoqdalar va ularni ekologik jihatdan yanada barqaror qilishga intilmoqdalar.

Qadoqlash sohasida materiallar qayta ishlanadigan yoki biologik parchalanadigan bo'lishi muhim. Misol uchun, gazeta va shisha idishlarni oddiy maishiy chiqindilarga tashlash o'rniga, bir qator mamlakatlarda odamlar qayta ishlash uchun maxsus konteynerlardan foydalanishga undaladi. Sabzavot po'stlog'i kabi maishiy chiqindilarning ayrim turlari tabiiy ravishda biologik parchalanadi, ya'ni ular vaqt o'tishi bilan tabiiy ravishda parchalanadi.

Biroq, sun'iy materiallar bilan ishlash oson emas. Plastmassa mahsulotlari va qadoqlash yo'q qilish ayniqsa qiyin bo'lgan chiqindilarni hosil qiladi. Bu plastik chiqindilar yer ostiga ko'milgan ulkan poligonlar uchun zarurat tug'diradi, bu esa kelajak avlodlar uchun muammolarni keltirib chiqarishi mumkin. Bu shuningdek, chiqindilarning qayta ishlatilmasligini anglatadi.

Sanoat chiqindilari shunga o'xshash muammoni keltirib chiqaradi, chunki zavod oqava suvlari ko'pincha suv manbalarini ifloslantirishi mumkin bo'lgan kimyoviy moddalarni o'z ichiga oladi. Bunday ifloslanishning oldini olish uchun zavod chiqindilari diqqat bilan nazorat qilinishi kerak. Buning oldini olish uchun xavfsizlik choralarini ko'rish muhim.

Texnologik yutuqlar, jumladan, atom energiyasi chiqindi muammosini yanada kuchaytirdi. Yadroviy chiqindilarni utilizatsiya qilish, ayniqsa, uning radioaktivligi tufayli xavotirli bo'lib, bu hayotga potentsial xavf soladi. Bu chiqindi jiddiy xavfdir.

Ko'pgina mamlakatlarda erishilgan yuqori turmush darajasi chiqindi ishlab chiqarishning sezilarli darajada oshishiga olib keldi. Bu sayyoramiz ekologiyasiga halokatli ta'sir ko'rsatishi mumkin. Atrof-muhitimizni potentsial falokatdan himoya qilish uchun zudlik bilan qat'iy choralar ko'rish kerakligiga shubha yo'q. Barcha uchun yanada sog'lom kelajakni ta'minlash uchun barqaror amaliyotlarni targ'ib qilish muhim.

C1 Bugungi bozorda ishlab chiqaruvchilar ekologik jihatdan toza qadoqlash yechimlarini ishlab chiqish va sotish uchun raqobat kurashiga kirishgan. Qadoqlash zamonaviy marketing strategiyalarida inkor etib bo'lmas darajada muhim rol o'ynasa-da, uning odatiy shakllari ko'pincha atrof-muhit barqarorligiga jiddiy tahdid soladi. Bu tahdid, asosan, ikkita asosiy omildan kelib chiqadi: bunday qadoqlashni ishlab chiqarish bilan bog'liq katta energiya sarfi va u chiqindi oqimiga kirgandan so'ng uni yo'q qilishni boshqarishdagi qiyinchiliklar.

Zamonaviy turmush tarzining atrof-muhitga salbiy ta'siri haqida xabardorlikning oshishi ko'pchilik mamlakatlarda keng tarqalgan. Natijada, ko'proq fuqarolar kelajak avlodlar uchun sayyorani himoya qilish majburiyati bilan atrof-muhitni muhofaza qilish tamoyillari bilan faol shug'ullanmoqda. Ushbu ortib borayotgan tashvishni hisobga olgan holda, siyosatchilar ham, olimlar ham energiya tejash va chiqindilarni yo'q qilish amaliyotini yanada ekologik mas'uliyatli qilish maqsadida tekshirmoqda.

Qadoqlashga kelsak, uning osonlik bilan qayta ishlanishi yoki to'liq biologik parchalanadigan bo'lishini ta'minlash zarur. Masalan, bir qator mamlakatlar fuqarolarni gazetalarni va shisha idishlarni umumiy uy chiqindilaridan ajratishga faol ravishda undaydi va ularni belgilangan yig'ish punktlariga yo'naltiradi, shu bilan qayta ishlash jarayonini osonlashtiradi. Sabzavot po'stlog'i kabi ba'zi turdagi uy chiqindilari tabiiy biologik parchalanish xususiyatiga ega bo'lib, ular atrof-muhitga to'liq singib ketgunga qadar asta-sekin parchalanadi.

Biroq, ishlab chiqarilgan mahsulotlarni yo'q qilish yanada murakkab muammoni keltirib chiqaradi. Ayniqsa, plastik mahsulotlar va qadoqlash, boshqarish juda qiyin bo'lgan chiqindi oqimini tashkil qiladi. Bu plastik chiqindilarni yer ostiga ko'mish uchun keng ko'lamli poligonlar yaratishni talab qiladi, bu amaliyot kelajak avlodlar uchun uzoq muddatli oqibatlarga olib kelishi mumkin. Buni shunchaki muammoni keyinga qoldirish deb ta'kidlash mumkin.

Xuddi shunday muammoli narsa - sanoat chiqindilari masalasi. Fabrika oqava suvlari ko'pincha suv ta'minotini ifloslantirishi mumkin bo'lgan kimyoviy birikmalarni o'z ichiga oladi. Ushbu xavfni kamaytirish uchun fabrika chiqindilarini qat'iy nazorat qilish muhimdir. Shundagina biz ushbu ifloslantiruvchi moddalar atrof-muhitga sizib chiqmasligini ta'minlashimiz mumkin.

Texnologik yutuqlar, ayniqsa yadroviy energiya bilan bog'liq bo'lganlar, chiqindilarni boshqarish muammosini yanada kuchaytirdi. Yadroviy chiqindilarni yo'q qilish, uning radioaktiv tabiati va tirik organizmlar uchun potentsial xavfi tufayli alohida tashvishga soladi. Yadroviy chiqindilarni xavfsiz saqlash - bu global muammo bo'lib, ko'p qirrali yondashuvni talab qiladi.

Ko'pgina davlatlarda hayot darajasining yuqori bo'lishi chiqindilarning keskin ko'payishiga olib keldi. Bu tendentsiya sayyoramizning ekologik muvozanatiga dahshatli ta'sir ko'rsatishini bashorat qiladi. Shubhasiz, atrof-muhitimizni potentsial falokatdan himoya qilish uchun zudlik bilan qat'iy choralar ko'rish kerak. Endi biz qiyinchilikka chidashimiz va allaqachon qilingan atrof-muhitga zararni kamaytirish va keyingi degradatsiyani oldini olish uchun barqaror amaliyotlarni joriy etishimiz shart.

Many problems that governments have to deal with today are international. For example, think about traffic. Big cities all over the world are trying to find ways to deal with too many cars and the traffic jams they cause.

Many of the cars that fill our cities are private cars. People don't want to leave their cars behind and use public transport, even when there are traffic jams. They think buses and trains are for other people. They like to drive from door to door. This is why our roads are so full of traffic.

Of course, it's not always easy to find a parking space. Some companies have car parks for their workers. But most people have to use public car parks or try to park on the street. There are often many parking meters, so parking can be frustrating for drivers.

People who usually obey the law sometimes take risks when it comes to traffic. They ignore 'NO PARKING' signs and lines on the road that show parking rules. If they stay away from their cars for too long, they don't worry – until they see a parking ticket on their car window. Then they know they have to pay a fine.

More and more cities are trying to keep cars out of the city centre. They have made some areas pedestrianized, which means only people can walk there. They have also started park-and-ride schemes so people can leave their cars outside the city and take a bus in.

Still, people worry that more and more traffic will cause gridlock in cities, especially during rush hour. There are so many tailbacks and bottlenecks on the roads that driving is not fun anymore. So why do so many of us still use our cars?

B1 KEY WORDS 18

B2 VANTAGE

Many of the challenges facing governments today are global in nature. A prime example is traffic congestion. Major cities worldwide are struggling to devise solutions for the ever-increasing number of vehicles and the resulting road congestion. This issue demands attention and innovative strategies.

A significant contributor to urban traffic is the prevalence of private cars. Despite persistent traffic jams, many drivers are hesitant to abandon their vehicles and opt for public transportation. They often view buses, trams, and trains as alternatives for others, preferring the convenience of door-to-door driving. Consequently, our roads are frequently gridlocked with traffic.

Naturally, finding parking can be a challenge. While some companies provide parking facilities for their employees, most people must rely on public car parks, often multi-story structures, or attempt to park on the street. Given the often stringent restrictions and abundance of parking meters, finding a space becomes a source of frustration for many drivers. This situation often leads to stress and wasted time.

Otherwise law-abiding citizens sometimes take liberties when it comes to traffic regulations. They may disregard 'NO PARKING' signs or painted lines indicating parking restrictions.

Even if they exceed the time limit on a parking meter, they might not worry – until they find a parking ticket on their windshield and realize they face a fine. This behavior highlights the temptation to bend the rules when convenience is at stake.

To address this, authorities in numerous cities are attempting to discourage car use in city centers. They have pedestrianized large areas and implemented park-and-ride schemes, encouraging people to leave their cars on the city outskirts and complete their journey by bus. These measures aim to reduce traffic volume in the most congested areas.

Despite these efforts, there are concerns that escalating traffic levels will cause complete standstills in cities, especially during rush hour. With frequent tailbacks and bottlenecks on numerous roads, driving is no longer an enjoyable experience. This raises the question: why do so many of us persist in using our cars, even when faced with these inconveniences? Perhaps it's time to re-evaluate our reliance on personal vehicles and explore alternative modes of transportation.

C1 ADVANCED

The multifaceted challenges confronting contemporary governments are increasingly transnational in nature. Take, for instance, the pervasive issue of traffic congestion. Virtually all major urban centres globally are grappling with the imperative to devise effective strategies for managing the proliferation of vehicles and the resultant gridlock that chokes their road networks.

A significant proportion of the vehicles that inundate our cities are, undeniably, private automobiles. Motorists, it seems, are remarkably averse to abandoning the perceived comfort and convenience of their personal vehicles in favour of public transport, notwithstanding the persistent traffic bottlenecks. They often relegate buses, trams, and trains to the realm of alternative transportation for others, while simultaneously insisting on the door-to-door convenience afforded by private car ownership. This entrenched attitude contributes significantly to the saturation of our roadways.

Naturally, the availability of parking is not always guaranteed. While some organizations furnish car parks or garages, thereby accommodating at least a segment of their workforce, the majority of individuals are compelled to rely on public car parks, frequently multi-storey facilities, or alternatively, to attempt on-street parking. Given the prevalence of stringent regulations, often manifested in the ubiquitous presence of parking meters, securing a parking space constitutes a frequent source of exasperation for many drivers. The scarcity of parking leads to frustration and illegal parking.

Individuals who, under normal circumstances, adhere to legal and ethical standards are occasionally inclined to circumvent traffic regulations. Consequently, they may disregard 'NO PARKING' signs or painted road markings that delineate parking restrictions. Should their absence from their vehicles exceed the allotted time stipulated by the parking meter, they remain unconcerned – at least until the unwelcome sight of a parking ticket affixed to their windscreen dawns on them, forcing the realization that a fine will be levied. This is a common predicament for urban drivers.

Authorities in an increasing number of cities are actively pursuing measures to curtail vehicular access to city centres. To this end, they have implemented extensive pedestrianization schemes and introduced park-and-ride initiatives, with the objective of incentivizing individuals to leave their cars at the city's periphery and complete their journeys via public transportation. These are all attempts to alleviate congestion.

Nevertheless, there are persistent apprehensions that the relentless escalation of traffic volume will ultimately precipitate gridlock in urban areas, particularly during peak hours. With the pervasive presence of tailbacks and bottlenecks on a multitude of roads, the act of driving has devolved from a pleasurable experience into a frustrating ordeal. The question then arises: why do so many of us continue to perpetuate the use of our cars, despite these evident drawbacks?

UZ TARJIMA

B1 Hukumatlar bugungi kunda hal qilishga majbur bo'lgan ko'plab muammolar xalqaro xarakterga ega. Masalan, transport harakati haqida o'ylab ko'ring. Dunyo bo'ylab katta shaharlar juda ko'p mashinalar va ularning sabab bo'layotgan tirbandliklariga qarshi kurashish yo'llarini topishga harakat qilmoqda.

Shaharlarimizni to'ldirayotgan mashinalarning ko'pchiligi shaxsiy mashinalardir. Odamlar mashinalarini tashlab ketishni va jamoat transportidan foydalanishni xohlamaydilar, hatto tirbandliklar bo'lganda ham. Ular avtobus va poyezdlarni boshqa odamlar uchun deb o'ylashadi. Ular eshikdan eshikkacha haydashni yoqtirishadi. Shuning uchun yo'llarimiz transport harakati bilan to'lib-toshgan.

Albatta, to'xtash joyini topish har doim ham oson emas. Ba'zi kompaniyalarda o'z ishchilari uchun avtoturargohlar mavjud. Ammo ko'pchilik odamlar jamoat avtoturargohlaridan foydalanishlari yoki ko'chada to'xtashga harakat qilishlari kerak. Ko'pincha ko'plab to'xtash o'lchagichlari mavjud, shuning uchun to'xtash haydovchilar uchun asabiylashuvchi bo'lishi mumkin.

Odatda qonunga itoat qiladigan odamlar ba'zan transport harakati bilan bog'liq xavf-xatarlarga duch kelishadi. Ular 'TO'XTASH TAQIQLANADI' belgilari va yo'ldagi to'xtash qoidalarini ko'rsatadigan chiziqlarga e'tibor bermaydilar. Agar ular mashinalaridan uzoqda juda uzoq vaqt qolishsa, xavotirlanishmaydi - to mashina oynasida jarima talonini ko'rishmaguncha. Keyin ular jarima to'lashlari kerakligini bilishadi.

Borgan sari ko'proq shaharlar mashinalarni shahar markazidan uzoqroq tutishga harakat qilmoqda. Ular ba'zi hududlarni piyodalar zonasiga aylantirdilar, bu faqat odamlar u erda yurishi mumkin degan ma'noni anglatadi. Ular, shuningdek, odamlar o'z mashinalarini shahar tashqarisida qoldirib, avtobusda kirishi uchun "to'xtab-haydash" sxemalarini boshladilar.

Shunga qaramay, odamlar transport harakati ko'payib, shaharlarda, ayniqsa tiqilinch soatlarida to'liq tiqilishni keltirib chiqarishidan xavotirda. Yo'llarda shunchalik ko'p uzun navbatlar va tor joylar borki, haydash endi qiziqarli emas. Xo'sh, nega ko'pchiligimiz hali ham mashinalarimizdan foydalanamiz?

B2 Bugungi kunda hukumatlar duch kelayotgan ko'plab muammolar global xarakterga ega. Bunga yaqqol misol - tirbandlik. Dunyo bo'ylab yirik shaharlar avtomobillar sonining doimiy ravishda ortib borishi va natijada yo'llarda tirbandlik yuzaga kelishi uchun yechimlar ishlab chiqishga urinmoqda. Bu masala e'tiborni va innovatsion strategiyalarni talab qiladi.

Shahar tirbandligiga katta hissa qo'shadigan omil - xususiy avtomobillarning keng tarqalganligi. Doimiy tirbandliklarga qaramay, ko'plab haydovchilar o'z avtomobillaridan voz kechishga va jamoat transportini tanlashga ikkilanishadi. Ular ko'pincha avtobuslar, tramvaylar va poezdlarni boshqalar uchun muqobil variantlar deb bilib, eshikdan eshikkacha haydash qulayligini afzal ko'rishadi. Natijada, yo'llarimiz tez-tez tiqilib qoladi.

Tabiiyki, mashina qo'yish joyini topish qiyinchilik tug'dirishi mumkin. Ba'zi kompaniyalar o'z xodimlari uchun avtoturargohlar tashkil qilsa-da, ko'pchilik odamlar ko'pincha ko'p qavatli bo'lgan jamoat avtoturargohlariga tayanishi yoki ko'chada to'xtashga urinishi kerak. Ko'pincha qattiq cheklovlar va to'xtash hisoblagichlarining ko'pligi tufayli joy topish ko'plab haydovchilar uchun asabiylashish manbaiga aylanadi. Bu holat ko'pincha stress va behuda vaqt sarflashga olib keladi.

Qonunga itoatkor fuqarolar ba'zan yo'l harakati qoidalariga kelganda erkinlikka yo'l qo'yishadi. Ular "TO'XTAGA MUMLKIN EMAS" belgilariga yoki to'xtash cheklovlarini ko'rsatuvchi chiziqlarga e'tibor bermasligi mumkin. Agar ular to'xtash hisoblagichidagi vaqt limitidan oshib ketgan taqdirda ham, ular xavotirlanmasligi mumkin - to ular old oynasida jarima qog'ozini topib, jarima to'lash kerakligini anglamaguncha. Bu xatti-harakat qulaylik muhim bo'lganda qoidalarni buzish vasvasasini ko'rsatadi.

Bunga javoban, ko'plab shaharlardagi hokimiyatlar shahar markazlarida avtomobillardan foydalanishni kamaytirishga harakat qilmoqda. Ular katta hududlarni piyodalar hududiga aylantirdilar va park-and-ride sxemalarini joriy qildilar, odamlarni o'z mashinalarini shahar chekkasida qoldirib, sayohatlarini avtobusda yakunlashga undadilar. Bu choralar eng tirband hududlarda transport hajmini kamaytirishga qaratilgan.

Ushbu sa'y-harakatlarga qaramay, tirbandlik darajasining oshishi shaharlarda, ayniqsa, tirbandlik soatlarida to'liq to'xtashlarga olib kelishi mumkin degan xavotirlar mavjud. Ko'plab yo'llarda tez-tez uzilishlar va tor joylar bo'lgani sababli, haydash endi yoqimli tajriba emas. Bu savolni tug'diradi: nega ko'pchiligimiz bu noqulayliklarga duch kelganimizda ham o'z mashinalarimizdan foydalanishda davom etamiz? Ehtimol, shaxsiy transport vositalariga bo'lgan ishonchimizni qayta ko'rib chiqishimiz va transportning muqobil turlarini o'rganishimiz kerakdir.

C1 Hozirgi hukumatlar duch kelayotgan ko'p qirrali muammolar tobora transmilliy xususiyatga ega bo'lib bormoqda. Masalan, tirbandlikning keng tarqalgan muammosini olaylik. Dunyo bo'ylab deyarli barcha yirik shahar markazlari transport vositalarining ko'payishini va ular yo'l tarmoqlarini bo'g'ib qo'yadigan tirbandlikni boshqarish uchun samarali strategiyalarni ishlab chiqish zarurati bilan kurashmoqda.

Shaharlarimizni bosib olgan transport vositalarining katta qismi, shubhasiz, shaxsiy avtomobillardir. Haydovchilar, doimiy tirbandliklar bo'lishiga qaramay, shaxsiy transport vositalarining qulayligi va konforidan voz kechib, jamoat transportiga o'tishni xohlamaydilar. Ular ko'pincha avtobus, tramvay va poezdlarni boshqalar uchun muqobil transport vositasi sifatida ajratadilar, shu bilan birga shaxsiy avtomobilga egalik qilishning qulayligini talab qiladilar. Bu o'rnashib qolgan munosabat yo'llarimizning to'lib ketishiga sezilarli hissa qo'shadi.

Albatta, avtoturargohning mavjudligi har doim ham kafolatlanmaydi. Ba'zi tashkilotlar o'z xodimlarining hech bo'lmaganda bir qismini joylashtirish uchun avtoturargohlar yoki garajlar bilan ta'minlasa-da, ko'pchilik odamlar ko'pincha ko'p qavatli inshootlar bo'lgan jamoat avtoturargohlariga yoki ko'chada to'xtashga urinishga majbur bo'ladilar. Qat'iy qoidalarning keng tarqalganligini hisobga olsak, ko'pincha parkometrlar bilan ifodalanadi, to'xtash joyini topish ko'plab haydovchilar uchun g'azablanish manbai hisoblanadi. Avtoturargoh taqchilligi umidsizlik va noqonuniy to'xtashga olib keladi.

Odatda qonuniy va axloqiy me'yorlarga rioya qiladigan shaxslar ba'zan yo'l harakati qoidalarini chetlab o'tishga moyil bo'ladilar. Natijada, ular "TO'XTASH TAQIQLANGAN" belgilariga yoki to'xtash cheklovlarini belgilaydigan yo'l chiziqlariga e'tibor bermasliklari mumkin. Agar ularning transport vositasidan uzoqda bo'lishi parkometr tomonidan belgilangan vaqtdan oshsa, ular xavotirlanmaydilar - hech bo'lmaganda ularning old oynasiga yopishtirilgan jarima talonining yoqimsiz ko'rinishi ularni hayratga solmaguncha, jarima solinishini anglashga majbur qiladi. Bu shahar haydovchilari uchun keng tarqalgan vaziyatdir.

Shaharlar soni ortib borayotgan holda, hokimiyat organlari shahar markazlariga transport vositalarining kirishini qisqartirish choralarini faol ravishda ko'rmoqda. Shu maqsadda ular keng piyodalar zonalarini tashkil etish va shahar chetida mashinalarini qoldirib, sayohatlarini jamoat transportida yakunlashga odamlarni rag'batlantirish maqsadida park-and-ride tashabbuslarini joriy etdi. Bularning barchasi tirbandlikni kamaytirishga urinishlardir.

Shunga qaramay, transport hajmining tinimsiz oshishi oxir-oqibat shahar hududlarida, ayniqsa, eng gavjum soatlarda tirbandlikka olib kelishi haqida doimiy xavotirlar mavjud. Ko'plab yo'llarda tirbandlik va to'siqlar keng tarqalganligi sababli, haydash yoqimli tajribadan umidsizlikka aylandi. Shundan so'ng savol tug'iladi: nima uchun ko'pchiligimiz ushbu aniq kamchiliklarga qaramay, mashinalarimizdan foydalanishni davom ettiramiz?

Going to school is very important for children. But more and more children don't want to go. It's not because the work is too hard, or they don't like the teachers. It's because they are being bullied.

School bullies can make life very bad for other children. Bullying can happen in different ways. Sometimes, bullies are bigger and stronger. They intimidate smaller children. They threaten to hurt them if they don't do what they say. Bullies might extort money or steal things from other children.

Bullies also use words to hurt people. They might verbally abuse other children. Sometimes, they pick on children who are a little different. Maybe a child has red hair, wears glasses, or doesn't have the newest clothes. Maybe they only have one parent, or they are from a different country. This can make them a target for bullies. Bullies will call them insulting names.

Some experts say that bullies want to be in charge because they feel bad about themselves. They might be unhappy. But this doesn't help the children who are being bullied. Bullying is such a big problem that many schools have a plan to deal with it.

Teachers tell children who are being bullied to report it to them. But many children are afraid to tell. They are scared they will get hurt or made fun of even more. Bullies might say they are telling tales and make them suffer more. Sometimes, bullies seem nice to teachers and other adults, even though they are domineering to other kids.

It's hard to get children to report bullies. It's also hard to prove that someone is being forced to do something. So, many bullies don't get punished. We need to protect children from bullying. They should be able to enjoy their time at school. They have a right to feel safe and happy.

B2 VANTAGE

Education plays a crucial role in a child's development, yet a growing number of students are reluctant to attend school. This isn't always due to academic difficulties or fear of teachers. Instead, many children are experiencing bullying, which can have a devastating impact on their well-being.

Bullying in schools can take many forms, making victims' lives incredibly difficult. Bullies often exploit their physical advantage to intimidate smaller or weaker students. They might threaten violence if their demands aren't met, often resorting to physical force to extort money or steal possessions. This creates a climate of fear and insecurity for the targeted individuals.

Verbal abuse is also a common tactic employed by bullies. Victims are often targeted for being different in some way. This could be anything from having red hair or wearing glasses to not owning the latest clothes or having a different family structure. These perceived differences can make them a prime target for bullies, who may engage in hurtful name-calling and other forms of verbal harassment. These attacks can be deeply damaging to a child's self-esteem and confidence.

Some psychologists suggest that a bully's desire to dominate others stems from their own feelings of insecurity or personal unhappiness. While this might offer some insight into the bully's motivations, it doesn't lessen the pain and suffering experienced by the victims. The problem is so prevalent that many schools have been forced to develop formal policies to address it. These policies often include clear guidelines for reporting and addressing bullying incidents.

Teachers encourage students to report bullying, but many victims are afraid to come forward, fearing further retaliation or increased harassment. Bullies may accuse them of being "tattletales" and make their lives even more miserable. Furthermore, bullies can often be deceptive, appearing charming and well-behaved to adults while tormenting their peers. This makes it difficult to gather evidence and hold them accountable for their actions.

Because reporting bullying can be challenging, and proving it is often difficult, many bullies evade punishment. It is essential that we protect children from this form of persecution. They have the right to feel safe and secure at school and to enjoy their education without fear. Schools must work to create a supportive environment where bullying is not tolerated, and victims feel empowered to speak out and seek help. Raising awareness and promoting empathy are key steps in preventing bullying and fostering a more inclusive and respectful school community.

C1 ADVANCED

The formative years spent in education are paramount, yet a growing number of students are displaying a marked aversion to attending school. This reluctance often doesn't stem from academic difficulty or apprehension towards educators. Instead, it frequently arises from the distressing phenomenon of bullying, a pervasive issue that casts a long shadow over the educational landscape.

School bullies can inflict considerable suffering on their peers, and their methods are manifold. A common tactic involves leveraging physical stature to intimidate those who are smaller or more vulnerable. Such individuals may resort to issuing veiled or explicit threats of physical violence should their demands – often involving the extortion of money or the forceful theft of possessions – not be met. This creates an atmosphere of fear and coercion.

Beyond physical aggression, bullies frequently employ verbal abuse, targeting perceived differences in their victims. These differences might encompass superficial characteristics such as hair color, the wearing of glasses, a lack of adherence to current fashion trends, the composition of their family (such as being raised by a single parent), or their racial or ethnic background. These superficial differences can render a child a target for relentless name-calling and demeaning remarks, perpetuating a cycle of abuse.

Some psychologists posit that the bully's desire to assert dominance over others is indicative of an underlying inferiority complex or some form of personal distress. However, such explanations offer little solace to those who are on the receiving end of the abuse. Indeed, the problem of bullying has become so acute that many educational institutions have been compelled to formulate comprehensive strategies for addressing it. While teachers encourage victims to report instances of bullying, many are hesitant to do so, apprehensive of further physical or verbal attacks. Bullies are apt to accuse them of being 'telltales,' thereby exacerbating their suffering. Furthermore, bullies, while domineering towards their victims, can often project an image of charm and compliance to those in positions of authority.

Given the difficulties inherent in persuading victims to report bullying and the challenges in substantiating claims of coercion, many perpetrators evade punishment. It is imperative that we shield our children from this form of persecution. They are inherently entitled to a positive and fulfilling experience during their school years, free from fear and intimidation. Schools need to implement more successful strategies in order to ensure that all children are able to thrive.

UZ TARJIMA

B1 Maktabga borish bolalar uchun juda muhim. Ammo tobora ko'proq bolalar borishni xohlamayapti. Buning sababi ish juda qiyinligi yoki o'qituvchilar yoqmasligi emas. Buning sababi ularni bezorilik qilishmoqda.

Maktab bezorilari boshqa bolalarning hayotini juda yomonlashtirishi mumkin. Bezorilik turli yo'llar bilan sodir bo'lishi mumkin. Ba'zan, bezorilar kattaroq va kuchliroq bo'ladi. Ular kichikroq bolalarni qo'rqitadi. Agar ular aytganini qilmasa, ularga zarar yetkazish bilan tahdid qiladi. Bezorilar pul talab qilishi yoki boshqa bolalardan narsalarni o'g'irlashi mumkin.

Bezorilar odamlarga zarar yetkazish uchun so'zlardan ham foydalanadi. Ular boshqa bolalarni og'zaki haqorat qilishi mumkin. Ba'zan, ular biroz farq qiladigan bolalarni tanlaydi. Ehtimol, bolaning sochlari qizil, ko'zoynak taqadi yoki eng so'nggi kiyimlari yo'qdir. Ehtimol, ularning faqat bitta ota-onasi bor yoki ular boshqa davlatdan kelgan. Bu ularni bezorilar uchun nishonga aylantirishi mumkin. Bezorilar ularni haqoratli ismlar bilan ataydi.

Ba'zi ekspertlarning aytishicha, bezorilar o'zlarini yomon his qilganlari uchun boshqaruvda bo'lishni xohlashadi. Ular xafa bo'lishi mumkin. Ammo bu bezorilikka uchrayotgan bolalarga yordam bermaydi. Bezorilik shunchalik katta muammoki, ko'plab maktablarda unga qarshi kurashish rejasi mavjud.

O'qituvchilar bezorilikka uchrayotgan bolalarga bu haqda ularga xabar berishni aytishadi. Ammo ko'plab bolalar aytishga qo'rqadi. Ular yana ham ko'proq zarar ko'rishdan yoki masxara qilinishdan qo'rqishadi. Bezorilar ular gap tashiyotganini aytishi va ularga yanada ko'proq azob berishi mumkin. Ba'zan, bezorilar o'qituvchilar va boshqa kattalarga nisbatan yaxshi ko'rinadi, garchi ular boshqa bolalarga nisbatan hukmronlik qiluvchi bo'lsa ham.

Bolalarni bezorilar haqida xabar berishga undash qiyin. Kimdir nimadir qilishga majburlanayotganini isbotlash ham qiyin. Shunday qilib, ko'plab bezorilar jazolanmaydi. Biz bolalarni bezorilikdan himoya qilishimiz kerak. Ular maktabda vaqt o'tkazishdan zavqlanishlari kerak. Ularning o'zlarini xavfsiz va baxtiyor his qilishga haqlari bor.

B2 Ta’lim bolaning rivojlanishida muhim rol o‘ynaydi, ammo tobora ko‘proq o‘quvchilar maktabga borishga ishtiyoqmand emas. Buning sababi har doim ham akademik qiyinchiliklar yoki o‘qituvchilardan qo‘rqish emas. Aksincha, ko‘plab bolalar zo‘ravonlikka duch kelmoqdalar, bu ularning farovonligiga halokatli ta’sir ko‘rsatishi mumkin.

Maktablardagi zo‘ravonlik ko‘plab shakllarga ega bo‘lishi mumkin, bu esa jabrlanuvchilarning hayotini nihoyatda qiyinlashtiradi. Zo‘ravonlar ko‘pincha kichikroq yoki zaifroq o‘quvchilarni qo‘rqitish uchun o‘zlarining jismoniy ustunligidan foydalanadilar. Ular talablari bajarilmasa, zo‘ravonlik bilan tahdid qilishlari, ko‘pincha pul undirish yoki narsalarni o‘g‘irlash uchun jismoniy kuch ishlatishlari mumkin. Bu nishonga olingan shaxslar uchun qo‘rquv va ishonchsizlik muhitini yaratadi.

Og‘zaki haqorat ham zo‘ravonlar tomonidan qo‘llaniladigan keng tarqalgan taktika hisoblanadi. Jabrlanuvchilar ko‘pincha qandaydir tarzda boshqacha bo‘lganligi uchun nishonga olinadi. Bu qizil sochli bo‘lish yoki ko‘zoynak taqishdan tortib, eng so‘nggi kiyimlarga ega bo‘lmaslik yoki boshqacha oilaviy tuzilishga ega bo‘lishgacha bo‘lishi mumkin. Bu farqlar ularni zo‘ravonlar uchun asosiy nishonga aylantirishi mumkin, ular haqoratli laqablar va og‘zaki ta’qiblarning boshqa shakllarida qatnashishi mumkin. Bu hujumlar bolaning o‘ziga bo‘lgan ishonchi va qadr-qimmatiga jiddiy zarar yetkazishi mumkin.

Ba’zi psixologlarning fikricha, zo‘ravonning boshqalarga hukmronlik qilish istagi o‘zining ishonchsizligi yoki shaxsiy baxtsizligidan kelib chiqadi. Bu zo‘ravonning motivatsiyasiga biroz tushuncha berishi mumkin bo‘lsa-da, jabrlanuvchilarning og‘riq va azobini kamaytirmaydi. Muammo shunchalik keng tarqalganki, ko‘plab maktablar uni hal qilish uchun rasmiy siyosat ishlab chiqishga majbur bo‘ldilar. Ushbu siyosatlar ko‘pincha zo‘ravonlik holatlari haqida xabar berish va ularni hal qilish bo‘yicha aniq ko‘rsatmalarni o‘z ichiga oladi.

O‘qituvchilar o‘quvchilarni zo‘ravonlik haqida xabar berishga undaydilar, ammo ko‘plab jabrlanuvchilar qasos olishidan yoki ta’qib kuchayishidan qo‘rqib, oldinga chiqishga qo‘rqadilar. Zo‘ravonlar ularni "chaqimchi" deb ayblashi va hayotlarini yanada achinarli qilishi mumkin. Bundan tashqari, zo‘ravonlar ko‘pincha aldamchi bo‘lishi, kattalarga yoqimli va odobli ko‘rinishi, ayni paytda tengdoshlarini qiynashi mumkin. Bu dalillarni to‘plashni va ularni o‘z xatti-harakatlari uchun javobgarlikka tortishni qiyinlashtiradi.

Zo‘ravonlik haqida xabar berish qiyin bo‘lishi va uni isbotlash ko‘pincha qiyinligi sababli, ko‘plab zo‘ravonlar jazodan qochib qutuladilar. Bolalarni bu ta’qib shaklidan himoya qilishimiz zarur. Ular maktabda o‘zlarini xavfsiz va himoyalangan his qilishga, qo‘rquvsiz ta’lim olishdan bahramand bo‘lishga haqlidirlar. Maktablar zo‘ravonlikka yo‘l qo‘yilmaydigan va jabrlanuvchilar o‘z fikrlarini bildirish va yordam so‘rashga vakolatli bo‘lgan qo‘llab-quvvatlovchi muhit yaratishga harakat qilishlari kerak. Xabardorlikni oshirish va hamdardlikni rivojlantirish zo‘ravonlikning oldini olish va yanada inklyuziv va hurmatli maktab hamjamiyatini shakllantirishda muhim qadamlardir.

C1 Ta’limda o‘tkazilgan shakllanish yillari nihoyatda muhim, ammo tobora ko‘proq o‘quvchilar maktabga borishga nisbatan sezilarli nafrat namoyon qilmoqdalar. Bu istaksizlik ko‘pincha akademik qiyinchilik yoki o‘qituvchilarga nisbatan qo‘rquvdan kelib chiqmaydi. Aksincha, u ko‘pincha ta’lim muhitiga uzoq soya soladigan keng tarqalgan muammo – bullingning achinarli hodisasidan kelib chiqadi.

Maktab bullilari o‘z tengdoshlariga jiddiy azob berishi mumkin va ularning usullari ko‘p xilma-xildir. Keng tarqalgan taktika - kichikroq yoki zaifroq bo‘lganlarni qo‘rqitish uchun jismoniy qomatdan foydalanish. Bunday shaxslar, talablari – ko‘pincha pul to‘lash yoki mulkni kuch bilan o‘g‘irlash – bajarilmasa, jismoniy zo‘ravonlik bilan yashirin yoki aniq tahdidlar qilishlari mumkin. Bu qo‘rquv va majburlash muhitini yaratadi.

Jismoniy tajovuzdan tashqari, bullilar ko‘pincha o‘z qurbonlaridagi ko‘rinadigan farqlarni nishonga olib, og‘zaki haqorat qilishadi. Bu farqlar soch rangi, ko‘zoynak taqish, hozirgi moda tendentsiyalariga rioya qilmaslik, ularning oilasi tarkibi (masalan, yolg‘iz ota-ona tomonidan tarbiyalanish) yoki irqiy yoki etnik kelib chiqishi kabi yuzaki xususiyatlarni o‘z ichiga olishi mumkin. Bu yuzaki farqlar bolani tinimsiz laqablar va kamsituvchi so‘zlar uchun nishonga aylantirishi, suiiste’mollik tsiklini davom ettirishi mumkin.

Ba’zi psixologlarning ta’kidlashicha, bullining boshqalar ustidan hukmronlik qilish istagi uning yashirin past baholilik kompleksi yoki shaxsiy azoblanishning bir qanday shaklidan dalolat beradi. Biroq, bunday izohlar suiiste’molga uchrayotganlarga hech qanday tasalli bermaydi. Haqiqatan ham, bulling muammosi shunchalik keskinlashdiki, ko'plab ta'lim muassasalari uni hal qilish uchun keng qamrovli strategiyalarni ishlab chiqishga majbur bo'lishdi. O'qituvchilar qurbonlarni bulling holatlari haqida xabar berishga undashsa-da, ko'pchilik bundan tortinishadi, chunki ular keyingi jismoniy yoki og'zaki hujumlardan qo'rqishadi. Bullilar ularni "chaqimchilar" deb ayblashga moyil bo'lib, shu bilan ularning azobini kuchaytiradi. Bundan tashqari, bullilar o'z qurbonlariga nisbatan hukmronlik qilsalar ham, hokimiyat vakillariga nisbatan jozibali va itoatkor qiyofa yaratishlari mumkin.

Qurbonlarni bulling haqida xabar berishga ko'ndirishdagi qiyinchiliklar va majburlash da'volarini asoslashdagi muammolarni hisobga olgan holda, ko'plab aybdorlar jazodan qochib qutuladilar. Biz farzandlarimizni bu shakldagi ta'qiblardan himoya qilishimiz shart. Ular maktab yillarida qo'rquv va qo'rqitishdan xoli, ijobiy va to'laqonli tajribaga haqli. Barcha bolalar gullab-yashnashi uchun maktablar yanada muvaffaqiyatli strategiyalarni amalga oshirishi kerak.

We all get older, even if we try to stop it. It's part of life. Some people use makeup or have surgery to look younger. They might dye their hair to hide grey hairs. But we can't stay young forever.

Medical advances help people live longer. But it's important to have a good life, and everyone ages differently. Some older people are healthy and can take care of themselves. Others are not so lucky. They might need to live in special homes where they can get help.

One of the hardest things about getting old is that your mind might not be as sharp. Older people sometimes forget things that just happened. But they might remember things from a long time ago very well. Later, some people get dementia, like Alzheimer's disease. This disease gets worse over time.

But not all older people have these problems. Many senior citizens are still very smart and see retirement as a time to be free. If they have a good pension, they might have enough money to go on holidays and buy nice things. Because of this, businesses and the government respect older people and their money.

However, not everyone treats older people well. In some cultures, people respect their elders a lot. But in other places, people don't think old people are important and treat them badly. These people are ageist. They might think old people are frail and close to death. They should remember that they will be old one day too.

Growing old is an inevitable part of life, something we all face despite our best efforts to postpone it. While cosmetic procedures like surgery and hair dye can temporarily mask the signs of ageing, they can't stop the clock. Medical advancements have certainly helped people live longer, but the focus should be on maintaining a good quality of life as we age. The ageing process affects everyone differently; some remain healthy and independent well into old age, while others require support earlier.

One of the most challenging aspects of ageing is the potential decline in mental sharpness. It's common for older individuals to experience short-term memory loss, even while easily recalling distant memories. In some cases, this can progress to dementia, often in the form of Alzheimer's disease, a condition that gradually worsens over time. However, it's important to remember that this isn't the case for all older people.

Many senior citizens maintain their mental faculties and view retirement as a chance to enjoy newfound freedom. Those with good pensions may even find themselves financially comfortable, able to indulge in holidays and other luxuries. As a result, businesses and governments are increasingly aware of the economic and social influence of older people, often referred to as the "grey market".

Unfortunately, respect for older people isn't universal. While some cultures are known for their veneration of elders, in many societies, older people are relegated to a low status and treated accordingly. This type of discrimination, known as ageism, often leads to older individuals being unfairly labelled as frail and unproductive. Those who hold such views should remember that ageing is a universal experience and that they too will one day be in the same position. It is important to foster a society where older people are valued and respected for their wisdom and experience, not dismissed because of their age. We should strive to create inclusive environments where everyone can age with dignity. This includes ensuring access to appropriate healthcare, social support, and opportunities for continued learning and engagement. By challenging stereotypes and promoting intergenerational understanding, we can build a more equitable and supportive society for all.

C1 ADVANCED

The inexorable march of time affects us all, irrespective of our attempts to forestall its effects. Ageing is a universal phenomenon, and while cosmetic interventions might temporarily mask its outward signs – smoothing wrinkles, tightening sagging skin, or disguising grey hair – they ultimately offer only a fleeting illusion of youth. The underlying process continues unabated. Indeed, medical advancements have undeniably extended lifespans, yet the crucial determinant remains the quality of life enjoyed during those extended years, a metric that varies significantly from individual to individual.

While some individuals maintain remarkable health and independence well into their later years, others, often contemporaries, face the challenges of diminished capacity, necessitating a move to assisted living facilities or even nursing homes to ensure adequate care. This divergence underscores the multifaceted nature of ageing and the profound impact of individual circumstances.

Perhaps the most concerning aspect of growing older is the potential for cognitive decline. Age-related memory impairment, particularly affecting short-term recall, is a common experience, although long-term memories may remain remarkably vivid. Furthermore, some individuals may succumb to dementia, frequently manifesting as Alzheimer's disease, a progressive and debilitating condition. However, it is crucial to recognise that such cognitive decline is not an inevitable consequence of ageing.

Indeed, many senior citizens retain their cognitive faculties and embrace retirement as a period of newfound freedom and opportunity. Those with adequate financial resources, often in the form of substantial pensions, are well-positioned to enjoy leisure activities, travel, and other pursuits. This demographic has given rise to the concept of "grey power," a recognition of the economic and political influence wielded by older adults, prompting businesses and governments to re-evaluate their perceptions of this segment of the population. The rise of “grey tourism” is one such example.

Notwithstanding the growing recognition of the value of older people, ageism persists in many societies. While some cultures are renowned for the respect and reverence they accord their elders, others marginalize older individuals, viewing them as a burden on society. Such attitudes, often rooted in prejudice and a disregard for the contributions and experiences of older generations, are a stark reminder that ageism remains a pervasive social issue. Those who harbour such prejudices would do well to remember that they, too, will eventually experience the ageing process.

Ba'zi odamlar yoshroq ko'rinish uchun pardoz vositalaridan foydalanadilar yoki operatsiya qildiradilar. Ular oq sochlarini yashirish uchun sochlarini bo'yashlari mumkin. Ammo biz abadiy yosh bo'lib qololmaymiz.

Tibbiyotdagi yutuqlar odamlarning uzoqroq yashashiga yordam beradi. Ammo yaxshi hayot kechirish muhim va har kim har xil tarzda qaridi. Ba'zi keksa odamlar sog'lom va o'zlariga g'amxo'rlik qila oladilar. Boshqalarning omadi kelmaydi. Ularga yordam olishlari mumkin bo'lgan maxsus uylarda yashashlari kerak bo'lishi mumkin.

Qarishning eng qiyin narsalaridan biri shundaki, aqlingiz unchalik o'tkir bo'lmasligi mumkin. Keksa odamlar ba'zan yaqinda sodir bo'lgan narsalarni unutadilar. Ammo ular uzoq vaqtdan oldin bo'lgan narsalarni juda yaxshi eslashlari mumkin. Keyinchalik, ba'zi odamlar Altsgeymer kasalligi kabi demensiya bilan kasallanadilar. Bu kasallik vaqt o'tishi bilan yomonlashadi.

Ammo barcha keksa odamlarda bu muammolar bo'lmaydi. Ko'p pensionerlar hali ham juda aqlli va nafaqani erkin bo'lish vaqti deb bilishadi. Agar ularning yaxshi pensiyasi bo'lsa, ularda ta'tilga chiqish va chiroyli narsalarni sotib olish uchun etarli pul bo'lishi mumkin. Shu sababli, biznes va hukumat keksa odamlarni va ularning pullarini hurmat qiladi.

Biroq, hamma ham keksa odamlarga yaxshi munosabatda bo'lmaydi. Ba'zi madaniyatlarda odamlar kattalarini juda hurmat qiladilar. Ammo boshqa joylarda odamlar qariyalarni muhim deb hisoblamaydilar va ularga yomon munosabatda bo'lishadi. Bu odamlar yoshga nisbatan kamsituvchi. Ular qariyalarni zaif va o'limga yaqin deb o'ylashlari mumkin. Ular bir kun kelib o'zlari ham qarib qolishlarini unutmasliklari kerak.

B2 Qarish hayotning muqarrar bir qismidir, barchamiz uni kechiktirishga urinishlarimizga qaramay duch kelamiz. Kosmetik muolajalar, masalan, jarrohlik va soch bo'yoqlari qarish alomatlarini vaqtincha yashirishi mumkin, ammo ular vaqtni to'xtata olmaydi. Tibbiyot sohasidagi yutuqlar odamlarning uzoqroq yashashiga yordam berdi, lekin e'tibor qariganimiz sari yaxshi hayot sifatini saqlashga qaratilishi kerak. Qarish jarayoni hamma uchun har xil ta'sir qiladi; ba'zilar keksalik davrida ham sog'lom va mustaqil bo'lib qoladi, boshqalari esa erta yordamga muhtoj bo'ladi.

Qarishning eng qiyin jihatlaridan biri - aqliy o'tkirlikning pasayishi ehtimolidir. Keksa odamlar uchun yaqin xotirani yo'qotish, hatto uzoq xotiralarni osongina eslash odatiy holdir. Ba'zi hollarda, bu vaqt o'tishi bilan asta-sekin yomonlashadigan holat bo'lgan Altsgeymer kasalligi shaklida rivojlanishi mumkin. Biroq, buni barcha keksa odamlar boshdan kechirmasligini unutmaslik kerak.

Ko'pgina nafaqaxo'rlar o'zlarining aqliy qobiliyatlarini saqlab qoladilar va nafaqani yangi erkinlikdan bahramand bo'lish imkoniyati sifatida ko'rishadi. Yaxshi pensiya oladiganlar hatto o'zlarini moliyaviy jihatdan qulay his qilishlari mumkin, ta'til va boshqa dabdabalarga berilishga qodir. Natijada, biznes va hukumatlar keksa odamlarning iqtisodiy va ijtimoiy ta'siridan tobora ko'proq xabardor bo'lib bormoqda, ular ko'pincha "kulrang bozor" deb ataladi.

Afsuski, keksa odamlarga hurmat hamma joyda bir xil emas. Ba'zi madaniyatlar oqsoqollarni ulug'lashi bilan mashhur bo'lsa-da, ko'plab jamiyatlarda keksa odamlar past mavqega tushiriladi va shunga mos ravishda muomala qilinadi. Eyjizm deb nomlanuvchi kamsitishning bu turi ko'pincha keksa odamlarni adolatsiz ravishda zaif va samarasiz deb belgilanishiga olib keladi. Bunday qarashlarga ega bo'lganlar qarish universal tajriba ekanligini va bir kun kelib o'zlari ham xuddi shunday holatda bo'lishini eslashlari kerak. Keksa odamlar yoshi tufayli rad etilmasdan, donoligi va tajribasi uchun qadrlanadigan va hurmat qilinadigan jamiyatni rivojlantirish muhimdir. Biz hamma qadr-qimmat bilan qarishi mumkin bo'lgan inklyuziv muhitni yaratishga intilishimiz kerak. Bu tegishli tibbiy yordam, ijtimoiy qo'llab-quvvatlash, doimiy o'rganish va ishtirok etish imkoniyatlariga kirishni ta'minlashni o'z ichiga oladi. Stereotiplarga qarshi chiqish va avlodlararo tushunishni rivojlantirish orqali biz barcha uchun yanada adolatli va qo'llab-quvvatlovchi jamiyatni qura olamiz.

C1 Vaqtning to'xtovsiz o'tishi barchamizga ta'sir qiladi, uning ta'sirini oldini olishga urinishlarimizdan qat'i nazar. Qarish - bu universal hodisa, va kosmetik aralashuvlar tashqi alomatlarini vaqtincha yashirishi mumkin bo'lsa-da - ajinlarni tekislash, osilgan terini tortish yoki oq sochlarni yashirish - ular oxir-oqibat faqat yoshlikning qisqa muddatli illyuziyasini taklif qiladi. Asosiy jarayon to'xtovsiz davom etadi. Haqiqatan ham, tibbiy yutuqlar hayot davomiyligini shubhasiz uzaytirdi, ammo hal qiluvchi omil o'sha uzaytirilgan yillarda zavqlaniladigan hayot sifati bo'lib qoladi, bu ko'rsatkich shaxsdan shaxsga sezilarli darajada farq qiladi.

Ba'zi odamlar keksalik davrida ham ajoyib sog'lig'i va mustaqilligini saqlab qolsalar, boshqalari, ko'pincha zamondoshlari, qobiliyatining pasayishi muammolariga duch kelishadi, bu esa adekvat g'amxo'rlikni ta'minlash uchun yordamchi yashash joylariga yoki hatto qariyalar uyiga ko'chib o'tishni talab qiladi. Bu tafovut qarishning ko'p qirrali tabiatini va shaxsiy sharoitlarning chuqur ta'sirini ta'kidlaydi.

Ehtimol, qarishning eng tashvishli tomoni - bu kognitiv pasayish ehtimolidir. Yoshga bog'liq xotira buzilishi, ayniqsa qisqa muddatli eslashga ta'sir qilishi, umumiy tajriba bo'lsa-da, uzoq muddatli xotiralar juda yorqin bo'lib qolishi mumkin. Bundan tashqari, ba'zi odamlar duchor bo'lishi mumkin bo'lgan demensiya, ko'pincha Altsgeymer kasalligi sifatida namoyon bo'ladi, bu progressiv va zaiflashtiruvchi holat. Biroq, bunday kognitiv pasayish qarishning muqarrar oqibati emasligini tan olish juda muhim.

Haqiqatan ham, ko'plab keksa fuqarolar kognitiv qobiliyatlarini saqlab qoladilar va pensiyani yangi topilgan erkinlik va imkoniyat davri sifatida qabul qiladilar. Yetarli moliyaviy resurslarga ega bo'lganlar, ko'pincha katta pensiyalar shaklida, dam olish tadbirlari, sayohat va boshqa mashg'ulotlardan bahramand bo'lish uchun yaxshi imkoniyatga ega. Ushbu demografik "kulrang kuch" kontseptsiyasini keltirib chiqardi, bu keksa odamlar tomonidan amalga oshiriladigan iqtisodiy va siyosiy ta'sirni tan olish, biznes va hukumatlarni aholining ushbu segmenti haqidagi qarashlarini qayta ko'rib chiqishga undaydi. "Kulrang turizm"ning rivojlanishi shunday misollardan biridir.

Keksa odamlarning qadr-qimmatini tobora ko'proq e'tirof etilishiga qaramasdan, ko'plab jamiyatlarda eyjizm saqlanib qolmoqda. Ba'zi madaniyatlar o'z oqsoqollariga ko'rsatadigan hurmat va ehtirom bilan mashhur bo'lsa-da, boshqalari keksa odamlarni cheklab qo'yadi, ularni jamiyat uchun yuk deb hisoblaydi. Bunday munosabatlar, ko'pincha xurofot va keksa avlodlarning hissasi va tajribasiga bepisandlikdan kelib chiqadi, eyjizm keng tarqalgan ijtimoiy muammo ekanligini eslatib turadi. Bunday xurofotlarga ega bo'lganlar, oxir-oqibat o'zlari ham qarish jarayonini boshdan kechirishlarini unutmasliklari kerak.

In today's world, having good qualifications is very important. They are needed to get good jobs that pay well. Because of this, most parents want their children to study hard at school and do well in their exams. Many parents also hope their children will go to university and get a good degree.

However, not all children can get good grades. This is okay if parents accept it. But often, parents think that if their children just study hard, they will pass. This can cause a lot of stress for the children. As a result, they might get sick or fail exams they could have passed.

Some children are smart but not interested in formal learning. Some might be artistic and want to be an artist or designer. Others might be good at acting. Some might be good with their hands, or want to start their own businesses and become entrepreneurs.

It is possible for children to achieve these goals. But their parents might have different ideas. This can cause conflict in the family. It's interesting that many parents don't want their children to do the same job they do. For example, actors might not want their children to work in the theatre because it's not a certain job. Business people might think their children will have more status if they work in a school or university instead of in business.

The opposite can also happen. Parents who have worked hard to build a business might want their children to join it. But the children might want to find completely different jobs. Each generation has different ideas. This can make it hard for them to talk to each other. This is why we have something called the generation gap. It is difficult for people of different age groups to understand each other.

In today's world, educational qualifications are widely considered paramount. They are almost essential for securing well-paid jobs in professional fields. Consequently, most parents try to encourage their children to study diligently and achieve academic success by performing well in exams. Many parents also aspire for their children to attend university and graduate with a respectable degree.

However, not all children have the aptitude for academic success. This is perfectly acceptable, provided parents can accept it. Unfortunately, it's common for parents to believe that hard work alone guarantees exam success. Too often, they simply create excessive stress for their children, potentially leading to illness or exam failure that could have been avoided. This can undermine their children's confidence and well-being.

Some children may be intelligent but simply lack interest in traditional schooling. They might possess an artistic inclination, wishing to become artists or designers, or they might have a talent for acting. Others may demonstrate a knack for practical work or a desire to start their own businesses and become entrepreneurs. It's entirely possible for children to fulfil these ambitions. However, their parents may have different ideas, which can cause family conflict. Interestingly, many parents are hesitant to let their children follow in their own footsteps. For instance, actors might discourage their children from pursuing a career in theatre due to the precarious nature of the profession. Business owners might believe their children would gain more prestige in an academic field than in the business world.

The opposite situation also occurs. Parents who have worked hard to establish a business might want their children to join it, only to find that their children prefer entirely different careers. This can lead to disappointment and misunderstanding. Each generation tends to have different perspectives, making communication between them incredibly challenging. This is the genesis of what is commonly known as the generation gap, a phenomenon that can strain family relationships. Bridging this gap requires empathy and a willingness to understand each other's viewpoints, allowing children to pursue their own paths while maintaining strong family bonds and mutual respect.

C1 ADVANCED

In contemporary society, educational qualifications are widely regarded as paramount, functioning as a key determinant for securing reasonably remunerative employment, particularly within professional sectors. Consequently, a prevailing aspiration among parents is to instill in their children a robust work ethic and a commitment to academic excellence, with the ultimate goal of achieving notable success in examinations. Indeed, many parents harbour ambitions for their offspring to pursue higher education, culminating in the attainment of a prestigious degree.

However, it is crucial to acknowledge that not all children possess an innate aptitude for academic pursuits. This divergence in capabilities is not inherently problematic, provided that parents demonstrate a willingness to accept and accommodate these differences. Regrettably, a common pitfall lies in the parental assumption that diligent study alone guarantees exam success. Such an approach can, all too frequently, precipitate undue stress and anxiety in children, potentially leading to illness or, paradoxically, undermining their performance in examinations they might otherwise have passed. The pressure can take its toll.

Furthermore, a subset of children, while possessing considerable intellectual capacity, may simply lack interest in traditional, formal learning environments. Some may exhibit a natural inclination towards artistic expression, aspiring to careers as artists or designers, while others might demonstrate a talent for performing arts. Still others may reveal an aptitude for manual trades or harbour entrepreneurial ambitions, seeking to establish their own businesses. It is perfectly feasible for children to realise such aspirations, but such is not always met with family support.

The realisation of these alternative ambitions is entirely viable; nevertheless, parental preferences often diverge, potentially leading to familial discord. Ironically, many parents display a reluctance to permit their children to follow in their footsteps. For instance, actors may dissuade their children from pursuing theatrical careers, citing the inherent instability of the profession. Similarly, entrepreneurs might believe that an academic vocation offers their children greater social standing than the world of commerce. This can give rise to conflict.

Conversely, the opposite scenario also frequently arises. Parents who have dedicated considerable effort to establishing a successful business may desire their children to assume a role within it, only to discover that their sons and daughters are drawn to entirely different professional paths. Each successive generation tends to embrace distinct perspectives and ideologies, thereby rendering meaningful communication between them exceedingly challenging. It is from this divergence that the aptly named generation gap stems from.

B1 Bugungi kunda yaxshi malakaga ega bo'lish juda muhim. Ular yaxshi maosh to'laydigan yaxshi ishlarni topish uchun kerak. Shu sababli, ko'pchilik ota-onalar farzandlari maktabda qattiq o'qishlarini va imtihonlardan yaxshi o'tishlarini xohlashadi. Ko'plab ota-onalar, shuningdek, farzandlari universitetga borib, yaxshi diplom olishiga umid qilishadi.

Biroq, hamma bolalar ham yaxshi baho ololmaydi. Agar ota-onalar buni qabul qilsa, bu yaxshi. Ammo ko'pincha, ota-onalar agar farzandlari qattiq o'qisa, imtihondan o'tadi deb o'ylashadi. Bu bolalar uchun juda katta stressga olib kelishi mumkin. Natijada, ular kasal bo'lib qolishi yoki o'tishi mumkin bo'lgan imtihonlardan yiqilishi mumkin.

Ba'zi bolalar aqlli, ammo rasmiy ta'limga qiziqmaydi. Ba'zilar badiiy bo'lishi va rassom yoki dizayner bo'lishni xohlashi mumkin. Boshqalar aktyorlikda yaxshi bo'lishi mumkin. Ba'zilarning qo'llari yaxshi ishlashi yoki o'z bizneslarini boshlashni va tadbirkorga aylanishni xohlashlari mumkin.

Bolalarning bu maqsadlarga erishishi mumkin. Ammo ularning ota-onalari boshqa fikrlarga ega bo'lishi mumkin. Bu oilada nizolarni keltirib chiqarishi mumkin. Ko'pgina ota-onalar farzandlarining o'zlari qiladigan ishni qilishini xohlamasligi qiziq. Masalan, aktyorlar farzandlarining teatrda ishlashini xohlamasligi mumkin, chunki bu aniq ish emas. Biznesmenlar farzandlarining biznesda ishlash o'rniga maktab yoki universitetda ishlashsa, ularning maqomi yuqori bo'ladi deb o'ylashlari mumkin.

Aksincha holat ham bo'lishi mumkin. Biznes qurish uchun ko'p mehnat qilgan ota-onalar farzandlarining unga qo'shilishini xohlashi mumkin. Ammo bolalar butunlay boshqa ish topishni xohlashlari mumkin. Har bir avlodning o'z fikrlari bor. Bu ularning bir-biri bilan gaplashishini qiyinlashtirishi mumkin. Shuning uchun bizda avlodlar o'rtasidagi tafovut degan narsa bor. Turli yosh guruhlarining bir-birini tushunishi qiyin.

B2 Bugungi kunda ta’lim darajalari nihoyatda muhim deb hisoblanadi. Ular professional sohalarda yaxshi maoshli ishlarni ta’minlash uchun deyarli zarurdir. Shu sababli, ko‘pchilik ota-onalar farzandlarini tirishqoqlik bilan o‘qishga va imtihonlarda yaxshi natijalarga erishish orqali akademik muvaffaqiyatga erishishga undashga harakat qiladi. Ko‘pgina ota-onalar farzandlarining universitetga kirishini va hurmatga sazovor diplom bilan o‘qishni tugatishini orzular qiladi.

Biroq, hamma bolalarda ham akademik muvaffaqiyatga erishish qobiliyati yo‘q. Agar ota-onalar buni qabul qila olsalar, bu butunlay maqbuldir. Afsuski, ota-onalar faqatgina qattiq mehnat imtihonlarda muvaffaqiyatni kafolatlaydi, deb hisoblashlari odatiy hol. Ko'pincha ular shunchaki farzandlari uchun haddan tashqari stress yaratadilar, bu esa oldini olish mumkin bo'lgan kasallik yoki imtihondan yiqilishga olib kelishi mumkin. Bu ularning farzandlarining ishonchini va farovonligini zaiflashtirishi mumkin.

Ba'zi bolalar aqlli bo'lishi mumkin, lekin shunchaki an'anaviy maktabga qiziqishi yo'q. Ular rassom yoki dizayner bo'lishni xohlab, badiiy moyillikka ega bo'lishi mumkin yoki aktyorlik qobiliyatiga ega bo'lishi mumkin. Boshqalar esa amaliy ishga usta bo'lishlari yoki o'z bizneslarini boshlash va tadbirkor bo'lish istagini namoyish etishlari mumkin. Bolalarning ushbu maqsadlarni amalga oshirishi butunlay mumkin. Biroq, ularning ota-onalari boshqacha fikrda bo'lishlari mumkin, bu esa oilaviy nizolarga olib kelishi mumkin. Qizig'i shundaki, ko'pchilik ota-onalar farzandlarining o'z izidan borishiga ikkilanishadi. Masalan, aktyorlar farzandlarini kasbning nozik tabiati tufayli teatrda karyera qilishdan qaytarishi mumkin. Biznes egalari farzandlari biznes olamiga qaraganda akademik sohada ko'proq obro'ga ega bo'lishiga ishonishlari mumkin.

Qarama-qarshi vaziyat ham sodir bo'ladi. Biznesni yo'lga qo'yish uchun ko'p mehnat qilgan ota-onalar farzandlarining unga qo'shilishini xohlashlari mumkin, lekin farzandlari butunlay boshqa karyerani afzal ko'rishlarini aniqlaydilar. Bu umidsizlik va tushunmovchilikka olib kelishi mumkin. Har bir avlod turli nuqtai nazarga ega bo'lishga moyil, bu esa ular o'rtasidagi muloqotni nihoyatda qiyinlashtiradi. Bu odatda avlodlar tafovuti deb ataladigan hodisaning boshlanishi bo'lib, bu oilaviy munosabatlarga putur etkazishi mumkin bo'lgan hodisadir. Bu tafovutni bartaraf etish hamdardlikni va bir-birining nuqtai nazarini tushunishga tayyor bo'lishni talab qiladi, bu esa bolalarga kuchli oilaviy rishtalarni va o'zaro hurmatni saqlagan holda o'z yo'llaridan borishlariga imkon beradi.

C1 Zamonaviy jamiyatda ta’lim darajasi keng tarqalgan holda o‘ta muhim deb hisoblanadi va ayniqsa, professional sohalarda munosib daromadli ish topishning asosiy omili bo‘lib xizmat qiladi. Natijada, ota-onalarning asosiy orzusi – farzandlariga qattiq mehnatsevarlik va akademik mukammallikka sodiqlikni singdirish, yakuniy maqsad esa imtihonlarda sezilarli muvaffaqiyatga erishishdir. Haqiqatan ham, ko'plab ota-onalar farzandlarining oliy ma'lumot olishini va nufuzli diplomga ega bo'lishini xohlashadi.

Biroq, barcha bolalarning ham akademik mashg'ulotlarga tug'ma qobiliyati yo'qligini tan olish muhimdir. Qobiliyatlardagi bunday farq ota-onalar bu farqlarni qabul qilishga va moslashishga tayyor ekanliklarini ko'rsatsa, muammo emas. Afsuski, ota-onalarning faqat tirishqoqlik bilan o'qish imtihonlarda muvaffaqiyatni kafolatlaydi, degan noto'g'ri taxmini keng tarqalgan xato hisoblanadi. Bunday yondashuv juda tez-tez bolalarda asossiz stress va tashvishni keltirib chiqarishi mumkin, bu esa kasallikka olib kelishi yoki paradoksal ravishda, ular o'tishi mumkin bo'lgan imtihonlardagi ko'rsatkichlarini pasaytirishi mumkin. Bosim o'z ta'sirini ko'rsatishi mumkin.

Bundan tashqari, bir qator bolalar, sezilarli intellektual qobiliyatga ega bo'lishiga qaramay, an'anaviy, rasmiy ta'lim muhitiga qiziqmasligi mumkin. Ba'zilarida rassom yoki dizayner sifatida martaba qilishga intilib, badiiy ifodaga tabiiy moyillik bo'lishi mumkin, boshqalari esa sahna san'atiga qobiliyatini namoyon qilishi mumkin. Yana boshqalari qo'l mehnati kasblariga qobiliyatini ko'rsatishi yoki o'z biznesini yo'lga qo'yishga intilib, tadbirkorlik ambitsiyalarini namoyon qilishi mumkin. Bolalar bunday intilishlarni amalga oshirishi mumkin, ammo bu har doim ham oilaning qo'llab-quvvatlashiga ega bo'lmaydi.

Ushbu muqobil maqsadlarga erishish butunlay mumkin; shunga qaramay, ota-onalarning afzalliklari ko'pincha farq qiladi, bu esa oilaviy kelishmovchiliklarga olib kelishi mumkin. Ajablanarlisi shundaki, ko'plab ota-onalar farzandlariga o'z yo'llaridan borishga ruxsat berishni istamaydilar. Masalan, aktyorlar farzandlarini teatr karerasidan qaytarishi mumkin va bu kasbning beqarorligini sabab qilib ko'rsatishi mumkin. Xuddi shunday, tadbirkorlar akademik kasb farzandlariga tijorat olamiga qaraganda yuqori ijtimoiy mavqeni taklif qiladi, deb hisoblashi mumkin. Bu narsa kelishmovchilikka sabab bo'lishi mumkin.

Aksincha, teskari ssenariy ham tez-tez uchraydi. Muvaffaqiyatli biznesni yo'lga qo'yish uchun katta kuch sarflagan ota-onalar farzandlarining unda rol o'ynashini xohlashi mumkin, ammo o'g'il-qizlari butunlay boshqa kasblarga qiziqishini aniqlaydilar. Har bir keyingi avlod o'ziga xos nuqtai nazarlar va mafkuralarni qabul qiladi, shu bilan ular o'rtasida mazmunli muloqotni o'ta qiyinlashtiradi. Aynan shu farqdan avlodlar o'rtasidagi tafovut kelib chiqadi.

Discrimination against Disability

PASSAGE LENGTH BY LEVEL

B1 THRESHOLD

Sometimes, people treat people with disabilities unfairly. This is called discrimination. It can happen even if we don't mean to do it. Sometimes people act like disabled people are children.

For example, imagine someone in a wheelchair. People might ask their friend, 'Does he want coffee?' instead of asking the person in the wheelchair directly. It's like they don't notice the person. Sometimes, people just walk past them without being careful.

People with disabilities want to do the same things as everyone else. They want to go to museums, restaurants, and other public places. But it can be hard for them to get into these places. Often, there are steps at the entrance, which can be a problem for someone in a wheelchair. Some buildings have ramps now, which makes it easier.

Doorways can be too small for wheelchairs. And inside, there might only be stairs to go to other floors. Even if there is a lift, it might not be big enough. New buildings usually have bigger lifts and escalators. This is better for disabled people.

Many disabled people can manage at home by themselves. They might have a special lift or adapted appliances to help them. But when they go outside, they face many problems.

We need to make things easier for them. Society should try to remove these problems. Some things are being done, but we need more. We need more facilities for people with disabilities. If we don't, we are being unfair to them. We need to respect everyone.

It's easy to fall into the trap of discriminating against people with disabilities, sometimes without even realising it. Often, able-bodied individuals unintentionally patronise those with disabilities, treating them like children. For instance, instead of asking a wheelchair user directly what they'd like to drink, someone might ask their companion, effectively ignoring the person in the wheelchair. Even when disabled people are clearly independent and travelling alone, they can be made to feel invisible, as if they don't warrant basic consideration. People may simply push past them without a second glance.

Naturally, disabled people have the same desires and interests as everyone else. They want to visit cultural attractions like museums and art galleries, eat out at restaurants, and generally participate in public life. However, gaining access to these places can present significant challenges. Public buildings often have steps at the entrance, which pose a considerable obstacle for wheelchair users. While some buildings now offer ramps, making access easier, this isn't always the case.

Narrow doorways can also be difficult to manoeuvre through for wheelchair users. Even after entering a building, further difficulties may arise. In older buildings, the only way to reach different floors might be a flight of stairs. Even if a lift is available, it might be too small to accommodate a wheelchair. Modern buildings are generally better equipped, usually featuring reasonably spacious lifts and escalators, which significantly improve accessibility for disabled people.

Many disabled people are perfectly capable of living independently at home. They might have a lift installed to access different floors, and a range of specially adapted appliances to help them manage everyday tasks. However, the moment they venture outside, they encounter a multitude of barriers that hinder their ability to live a normal life. Society must make every effort to remove these barriers. While some progress has been made in providing facilities for people with disabilities, much more needs to be done. Failure to do so risks perpetuating ableism and further marginalising this group.

C1 ADVANCED

It is lamentable how often, whether through conscious prejudice or sheer thoughtlessness, many of us are complicit in acts of discrimination against individuals with disabilities. A particularly galling manifestation of this is the patronizing manner in which able-bodied individuals frequently interact with those who are differently abled, often treating them as though they possess the cognitive capacity of young children. A case in point would be the common occurrence of addressing questions intended for a wheelchair user to their companion – queries such as coffee preferences – thereby effectively rendering the individual invisible. Indeed, even when wheelchair users demonstrably possess the independence to navigate public spaces alone, they are often subjected to the indignity of being ignored or, worse still, physically bypassed with a distinct lack of consideration.

It stands to reason that individuals with disabilities share the same aspirations and desires as their able-bodied counterparts, including the wish to partake in cultural and social activities. However, the simple act of accessing public amenities such as museums, galleries, and restaurants can prove to be an arduous undertaking. The architectural design of many buildings, particularly older structures, often presents significant barriers, with entrances located at the summit of staircases, thereby posing an insurmountable obstacle to wheelchair users. While the provision of ramps in some modern buildings undoubtedly represents progress, even these accommodations are frequently inadequate.

The challenges do not cease upon entering a building. Narrow doorways can present further difficulties for wheelchair users, and once inside, the absence of suitable elevators, particularly in older buildings, can effectively restrict access to upper floors. Even when lifts are available, their dimensions may be insufficient to accommodate a wheelchair, thereby perpetuating the exclusion of individuals with mobility impairments. The prevalence of spacious lifts and escalators in contemporary architecture offers a glimmer of hope, facilitating greater accessibility for disabled people.

While many disabled individuals are now equipped to manage independently within their own homes, often through the utilisation of specialised lifts and adapted appliances that foster self-sufficiency, it is upon venturing into the public sphere that the most formidable obstacles to ordinary living arise. Society has a moral imperative to dismantle these barriers with all available resources. Although some provisions are currently in place, a far greater expansion of facilities is urgently required. Failure to do so renders society vulnerable to the accusation of ableism, a systemic prejudice that undermines the dignity and autonomy of individuals with disabilities, thereby impeding their full participation in civic life. Indeed, it is time for society to address the root causes of this inequity and foster a culture of inclusivity.

UZ TARJIMA

B1 Ba'zan odamlar nogironligi bor odamlarga nisbatan adolatsiz munosabatda bo'lishadi. Bu diskriminatsiya deb ataladi. Bu biz buni xohlamasak ham sodir bo'lishi mumkin. Ba'zida odamlar nogiron odamlarga go'yo ular bola bo'lganday muomala qilishadi.

Misol uchun, nogironlar aravachasida o'tirgan odamni tasavvur qiling. Odamlar nogironlar aravachasida o'tirgan odamdan to'g'ridan-to'g'ri so'rash o'rniga, ularning do'stidan: "U kofe xohlami?" deb so'rashlari mumkin. Go'yo ular odamni payqashmayotganday. Ba'zan odamlar ularning yonidan ehtiyot bo'lmasdan shunchaki o'tib ketishadi.

Nogironligi bor odamlar boshqalar kabi bir xil narsalarni qilishni xohlashadi. Ular muzeylarga, restoranlarga va boshqa jamoat joylariga borishni xohlashadi. Ammo ularga bu joylarga kirish qiyin bo'lishi mumkin. Ko'pincha, kirish joyida zinapoyalar bo'ladi, bu nogironlar aravachasida o'tirgan odam uchun muammo bo'lishi mumkin. Ba'zi binolarda hozir panduslar bor, bu esa vaziyatni osonlashtiradi.

Eshiklar nogironlar aravachalari uchun juda kichik bo'lishi mumkin. Ichkarida esa boshqa qavatlarga chiqish uchun faqat zinapoyalar bo'lishi mumkin. Hatto lift bo'lsa ham, u yetarlicha katta bo'lmasligi mumkin. Yangi binolarda odatda kattaroq liftlar va eskalatoplar bo'ladi. Bu nogironlar uchun yaxshiroqdir.

Ko'p nogiron odamlar uyda o'zlari boshqara olishadi. Ularda maxsus lift yoki ularga yordam beradigan moslashtirilgan jihozlar bo'lishi mumkin. Ammo ular tashqariga chiqqanda, ular ko'plab muammolarga duch kelishadi.

Biz ular uchun vaziyatni osonlashtirishimiz kerak. Jamiyat bu muammolarni bartaraf etishga harakat qilishi kerak. Ba'zi ishlar qilinmoqda, ammo bizga ko'proq narsa kerak. Bizga nogironligi bor odamlar uchun ko'proq qulayliklar kerak. Agar biz buni qilmasak, ularga nisbatan adolatsiz munosabatda bo'lamiz. Biz hammaga hurmat ko'rsatishimiz kerak.

B2 Nogironligi bor insonlarga nisbatan kamsitish tuzog'iga tushib qolish oson, ba'zan buni anglamasdan ham. Ko'pincha, sog'lom odamlar nogironlarga bexosdan homiylik qiladilar, ularga bolalardek munosabatda bo'ladilar. Masalan, nogironlar aravachasida o'tirgan odamdan nima ichishni xohlashini to'g'ridan-to'g'ri so'rash o'rniga, kimdir ularning hamrohidan so'rashi mumkin, bu nogironlar aravachasida o'tirgan odamni e'tiborsiz qoldirishga teng. Nogironlar mustaqil ekanligi va yolg'iz sayohat qilayotgani aniq bo'lsa ham, ular ko'rinmas bo'lib qolishlari mumkin, go'yo ular asosiy e'tiborga loyiq emasdek. Odamlar shunchaki ularning yonidan o'tib ketishlari mumkin.

Tabiiyki, nogironlar ham boshqa har bir kishi kabi xohish va manfaatlariga ega. Ular muzeylar va san'at galereyalari kabi madaniy obidalarga tashrif buyurishni, restoranlarda ovqatlanishni va umuman olganda ijtimoiy hayotda ishtirok etishni xohlashadi. Biroq, bu joylarga kirish jiddiy muammolarni keltirib chiqarishi mumkin. Jamoat binolarining kirish joylarida ko'pincha zinapoyalar bo'ladi, bu nogironlar aravachasi foydalanuvchilari uchun katta to'siqni hosil qiladi. Hozirda ba'zi binolar panduslar bilan ta'minlangan bo'lsa-da, bu har doim ham shunday emas.

Tor eshiklardan nogironlar aravachasida o'tish ham qiyin bo'lishi mumkin. Binoga kirgandan keyin ham, qo'shimcha qiyinchiliklar paydo bo'lishi mumkin. Eski binolarda turli qavatlarga chiqishning yagona yo'li zinapoya bo'lishi mumkin. Agar lift mavjud bo'lsa ham, u nogironlar aravachasini sig'dira olmaydigan darajada kichik bo'lishi mumkin. Zamonaviy binolar odatda yaxshiroq jihozlangan bo'lib, odatda keng liftlar va eskalatorlar mavjud bo'lib, ular nogironlar uchun qulaylikni sezilarli darajada oshiradi.

Ko'pgina nogironlar uyda mustaqil yashashga qodir. Ular turli qavatlarga chiqish uchun o'rnatilgan liftga ega bo'lishi mumkin va kundalik vazifalarni bajarishga yordam beradigan maxsus moslashtirilgan jihozlarga ega bo'lishi mumkin. Biroq, ular tashqariga chiqqan zahoti, normal hayot kechirish qobiliyatiga to'sqinlik qiladigan ko'plab to'siqlarga duch kelishadi. Jamiyat bu to'siqlarni bartaraf etish uchun barcha sa'y-harakatlarni qilishi kerak. Nogironlar uchun sharoit yaratishda muayyan yutuqlarga erishilgan bo'lsa-da, hali ko'p ishlar qilinishi kerak. Aks holda, bu ableizmni davom ettirish va bu guruhni yanada chetlashtirish xavfini tug'diradi.

C1 Afsuski, ko'pincha ongli ravishda kamsitish yoki shunchaki beparvolik tufayli ko'pchiligimiz nogironligi bo'lgan shaxslarga nisbatan kamsitish harakatlarida ishtirok etamiz. Bunga ayniqsa achinarli misol shuki, jismonan sog'lom odamlar nogironligi bo'lganlar bilan o'zaro munosabatda bo'lganda, ularni go'yo yosh bolalarning aqliy qobiliyatiga ega deb hisoblaydigan darajada past nazar bilan qarashadi. Misol uchun, nogironlar aravachasida o'tirgan odamga berilishi kerak bo'lgan savollarni uning hamrohiga berish – masalan, qahva afzalliklari haqidagi savollar – shu orqali odamni amalda ko'rinmas holga keltirish keng tarqalgan hodisa. Haqiqatan ham, nogironlar aravachasida o'tirgan odamlar jamoat joylarida mustaqil ravishda harakatlanishga qodir ekanliklarini namoyish qilsalar ham, ular ko'pincha e'tiborga olinmaslik yoki undan ham yomoni, beparvolik bilan jismonan chetlab o'tilish kabi haqoratlarga duch kelishadi.

Nogironligi bo'lgan shaxslar jismonan sog'lom odamlar kabi xuddi shunday intilish va istaklarga ega ekanligi, shu jumladan madaniy va ijtimoiy tadbirlarda ishtirok etish istagi ham tabiiy. Biroq, muzeylar, galereyalar va restoranlar kabi jamoat joylariga kirishning oddiygina harakati ham qiyin vazifa bo'lishi mumkin. Ko'pgina binolarning, ayniqsa eski inshootlarning me'moriy dizayni ko'pincha sezilarli to'siqlarni keltirib chiqaradi, kirish joylari zinapoyalarning tepasida joylashgan bo'lib, bu nogironlar aravachasida o'tirganlar uchun hal qilib bo'lmaydigan to'siqni keltirib chiqaradi. Ba'zi zamonaviy binolarda panduslarning ta'minlanishi, shubhasiz, taraqqiyotni anglatadi, ammo bu qulayliklarning o'zi ham ko'pincha yetarli emas.

Muammolar binoga kirgandan keyin tugamaydi. Tor eshiklar nogironlar aravachasida o'tirganlar uchun qo'shimcha qiyinchiliklar tug'dirishi mumkin, va ichkarida tegishli liftlarning yo'qligi, ayniqsa eski binolarda, yuqori qavatlarga kirishni amalda cheklashi mumkin. Hatto liftlar mavjud bo'lganda ham, ularning o'lchamlari nogironlar aravachasini sig'dira olmasligi mumkin, shu bilan harakatlanish qobiliyati cheklangan shaxslarni cheklashni davom ettiradi. Zamonaviy me'morchilikda keng liftlar va eskalatorlarning keng tarqalishi nogironlar uchun yanada qulaylik yaratishga umid uyg'otadi.

Ko'pgina nogironlar hozirda o'z uylarida mustaqil ravishda yashashga qodir, ko'pincha maxsus liftlar va o'zini o'zi ta'minlashga yordam beradigan moslashtirilgan jihozlardan foydalanish orqali, lekin odamlarning oldiga chiqqanda hayotning eng katta to'siqlari paydo bo'ladi. Jamiyatda bu to'siqlarni bartaraf etish uchun barcha mavjud resurslardan foydalanish axloqiy burchdir. Hozirda ba'zi qoidalar mavjud bo'lsa-da, qulayliklarni yanada kengaytirishga zudlik bilan ehtiyoj bor. Aks holda, jamiyat ableizmda ayblanishi mumkin, bu nogironligi bo'lgan shaxslarning qadr-qimmatini va avtonomiyasini buzadigan va shu bilan ularning fuqarolik hayotida to'liq ishtirok etishiga to'sqinlik qiladigan tizimli kamsitishdir. Haqiqatan ham, jamiyat ushbu tengsizlikning asosiy sabablarini bartaraf etishi va inklyuzivlik madaniyatini rivojlantirishi vaqti keldi.

B1 THRESHOLD

It's football season again! Many countries are playing games to see who will go to the World Cup. This time, it will be in Japan and Korea in 2002. Football, or soccer, is becoming more popular around the world. These games are very exciting.

Football is also popular at local clubs. Many fans go to games every week to support their team. They go to home games and away games. They hope their team will win. They want to see an exciting game with many goals. They don't want a boring game where players just pass the ball slowly.

Sadly, not everything happens on the field. Sometimes, there is trouble in the stands where the fans sit. Football fans usually wear their team's colors, like scarves or shirts, to show who they support. They are often very loud, cheering for their team and singing songs.

There is often a rivalry between different groups of supporters. Most of the time, it is friendly. But sometimes, trouble can start easily. Fans can get angry if they think the referee made a bad decision. For example, if a player gets a red or yellow card that the fans think is unfair. Or if the referee doesn't see a foul by the other team.

When trouble starts in a football crowd, it can be hard to control. Stadium staff often put fans from different teams in different parts of the stadium. This is to try and stop fights. But it is harder to stop trouble outside the stadium. Sometimes, the police have to come to stop riots.

Unfortunately, some fans enjoy the violence. These are called football hooligans. They like fighting with the police and making other people throw things. They don't see football as a sport. They just want to cause trouble. This spoils the game for everyone else. They incite others to join in the violence and cause damage. Their behavior can lead to arrests and stadium bans, but they often don't care. They just want to stir up trouble.

B2 VANTAGE

As football fever grips the world once again, the qualifying rounds for major tournaments like the World Cup are in full swing. The sport's global appeal is undeniable, and these matches generate considerable excitement. At the club level, weekly games draw huge crowds, with fans flocking to stadiums, both home and away, hoping for a victory. The ideal match, in their eyes, is an attacking one, filled with goals and excitement. A dull, defensive game with endless, pointless passing is the last thing they want to see.

Unfortunately, the action isn't always confined to the pitch. All too often, unruly behaviour spills over into the stands. Football supporters, easily identifiable by their team's colours displayed on scarves and shirts, are known for their passionate, and sometimes boisterous, behaviour. They enthusiastically cheer on their team, singing loud, often partisan songs.

While rivalry between supporters is a natural part of the game, and mostly harmless, it can quickly escalate into something more serious. Fans can become enraged by perceived injustices, such as a referee's decision to issue an unfair card or overlook a foul committed by the opposing team. Such incidents can ignite tensions and lead to conflict.

When trouble erupts within a football crowd, it can be extremely difficult to control. Stadium authorities frequently segregate opposing fans in different sections of the ground as a preventative measure. However, managing potential conflict outside the stadium is even more challenging. In extreme cases, the police, sometimes in riot gear, are called in to restore order.

Sadly, a minority of fans actively seek out violence. These football hooligans see the game as an excuse for causing trouble, relishing clashes with the police and inciting others to throw objects. They view football not as a sport, but as an opportunity for mayhem. Their behaviour inevitably tarnishes the image of the game and undermines the enjoyment of genuine fans. Law enforcement agencies are constantly working to clamp down on such behaviour and ensure the safety of everyone attending football matches, striving to maintain the sport's positive reputation and safeguard the experience for all.

C1 ADVANCED

As the preliminary stages unfold, determining which nations will vie for glory in the upcoming World Cup hosted by Japan and Korea, the global ascendancy of football continues apace. The sport's appeal extends to the club level, where devoted fans flock to both home and away fixtures each week, their hopes pinned on a favourable outcome. The ideal scenario, of course, is an attacking, high-scoring game, a stark contrast to the drudgery of a defensive stalemate characterised by aimless passing.

Regrettably, the spectacle is not always confined to the pitch. All too often, disturbances erupt within the stands themselves. Football supporters, who typically profess their allegiance by donning their team's colours, are not generally known for their subdued demeanour. Indeed, they frequently engage in vociferous displays of support, chanting partisan songs with considerable gusto. While a healthy rivalry typically exists between sets of supporters, this can easily devolve into conflict. Frustration mounts when fans perceive unfair decisions from the referee, such as unwarranted disciplinary action against their own players or the overlooking of fouls committed by the opposition.

When unrest takes hold within a football crowd, maintaining order can prove exceedingly challenging. Stadium authorities often segregate opposing fans as a pre-emptive measure to mitigate the risk of clashes. However, preventing disturbances outside the stadium presents a far greater logistical hurdle. In the most extreme cases, the intervention of riot police becomes necessary, a grim indictment of the situation.

It is deeply regrettable that a subset of individuals derives pleasure from the violent aspects associated with football. These so-called football hooligans actively seek confrontations with law enforcement, inciting others to hurl projectiles. They perceive football not as a sporting contest, but rather as a pretext for engaging in disruptive behaviour. Inevitably, their actions tarnish the image of the sport, casting a shadow over the genuine passion and dedication of the vast majority of supporters and undermining the integrity of the game.

UZ TARJIMA

B1 Mana yana futbol mavsumi! Ko'plab davlatlar Jahon chempionatiga kim borishini aniqlash uchun o'yinlar o'tkazmoqda. Bu safar u 2002-yilda Yaponiya va Koreyada bo'lib o'tadi. Futbol, yoki soccer, butun dunyo bo'ylab tobora ommabop bo'lib bormoqda. Bu o'yinlar juda hayajonli.

Futbol mahalliy klublarda ham mashhur. Ko'plab muhlislar har hafta o'z jamoasini qo'llab-quvvatlash uchun o'yinlarga borishadi. Ular uy o'yinlariga va safar o'yinlariga borishadi. Ular o'z jamoasi g'alaba qozonishiga umid qilishadi. Ular ko'plab gollar urilgan hayajonli o'yinni ko'rishni xohlashadi. Ular o'yinchilar shunchaki to'pni sekin uzatadigan zerikarli o'yinni xohlashmaydi.

Afsuski, hamma narsa maydonda sodir bo'lmaydi. Ba'zan, tribunada, muxlislar o'tiradigan joyda muammo bo'ladi. Futbol muxlislari odatda o'z jamoasini kim qo'llab-quvvatlashini ko'rsatish uchun sharflar yoki futbolkalar kabi jamoa ranglarini kiyishadi. Ular ko'pincha juda baland ovozda bo'lishadi, o'z jamoasini qo'llab-quvvatlashadi va qo'shiqlar kuylashadi.

Ko'pincha turli guruh tarafdorlari o'rtasida raqobat mavjud. Ko'p hollarda, u do'stona. Ammo ba'zan, muammo osonlik bilan boshlanishi mumkin. Agar ular hakam yomon qaror qabul qildi deb hisoblasalar, muxlislar g'azablanishi mumkin. Masalan, agar o'yinchi muxlislar adolatsiz deb hisoblagan qizil yoki sariq kartochka olsa. Yoki agar hakam boshqa jamoaning qoidabuzarligini ko'rmasa.

Futbol olomonida muammo boshlanganda, uni nazorat qilish qiyin bo'lishi mumkin. Stadion xodimlari ko'pincha turli jamoalardan kelgan muxlislarni stadionning turli qismlariga joylashtiradilar. Bu janjallarni to'xtatishga harakat qilish uchun. Ammo stadion tashqarisida muammoni to'xtatish qiyinroq. Ba'zan, politsiya tartibsizliklarni to'xtatish uchun kelishi kerak.

Afsuski, ba'zi muxlislar zo'ravonlikdan rohatlanishadi. Bular futbol bezorilaridir. Ular politsiya bilan urushishni va boshqa odamlarni narsalar uloqtirishga majbur qilishni yaxshi ko'radilar. Ular futbolni sport deb hisoblashmaydi. Ular shunchaki muammo tug'dirmoqchi. Bu hamma uchun o'yinni buzadi. Ular boshqalarni zo'ravonlikka qo'shilishga undanmoqda va zarar yetkazmoqda. Ularning xulq-atvori hibsga olishlarga va stadiondan chetlatishlarga olib kelishi mumkin, ammo ular ko'pincha ahamiyat bermaydilar. Ular shunchaki muammo qo'zg'atmoqchi.

B2 Futbol isitmasi yana butun dunyoni qamrab olayotgan bir paytda, Jahon chempionati kabi yirik turnirlarning saralash bosqichlari qizg'in davom etmoqda. Bu sport turining global mashhurligi shubhasiz va bu o'yinlar katta hayajon uyg'otadi. Klublar darajasida har haftalik o'yinlar ulkan olomonni jalb qiladi, muxlislar g'alaba umidida o'z jamoalarini qo'llab-quvvatlash uchun uyda ham, safarda ham stadionlarga oqin bo'lishadi. Ularning nazarida ideal o'yin - bu gollar va hayajonga to'la hujumkor o'yin. Ular zerikarli, himoyaviy o'yinni cheksiz, ma'nosiz uzatmalar bilan ko'rishni xohlashmaydi.

Afsuski, har doim ham harakat maydon bilan cheklanmaydi. Ko'pincha bezori xatti-harakatlar tribunaga ham o'tadi. Futbol muxlislari, sharf va ko'ylaklarda o'z jamoalarining ranglarini namoyish etish orqali osonlik bilan tanib olinadi, ular o'zlarining ehtirosli va ba'zan shovqinli xulq-atvorlari bilan mashhur. Ular o'z jamoalarini qizg'in qo'llab-quvvatlab, baland, ko'pincha tarafkash qo'shiqlarni kuylashadi.

Muxlislar o'rtasidagi raqobat o'yinning tabiiy qismi bo'lsa-da va asosan zararsiz bo'lsa-da, u tezda jiddiyroq narsaga aylanib ketishi mumkin. Muxlislar hakamning adolatsiz kartochka berish qarori yoki raqib jamoa tomonidan qilingan qo'pollikni e'tibordan chetda qoldirish kabi adolatsizliklar tufayli g'azablanishi mumkin. Bunday hodisalar keskinlikni olovlantirib, mojarolarga olib kelishi mumkin.

Futbol olomonida muammo boshlanganda, uni nazorat qilish juda qiyin bo'lishi mumkin. Stadion ma'murlari oldini olish choralari sifatida ko'pincha raqib muxlislarni stadionning turli qismlariga ajratishadi. Biroq, stadion tashqarisida yuzaga kelishi mumkin bo'lgan mojarolarni boshqarish yanada qiyinroq. Favqulodda hollarda, tartibni tiklash uchun politsiya, ba'zan tartibsizliklarga qarshi jihozlangan holda chaqiriladi.

Afsuski, muxlislarning ozchiligi zo'ravonlikni faol ravishda izlaydi. Bu futbol bezorilari o'yinni muammo keltirish uchun bahona sifatida ko'rishadi, politsiya bilan to'qnashuvlardan zavqlanishadi va boshqalarni narsalar uloqtirishga undashadi. Ular futbolga sport sifatida emas, balki tartibsizliklar uchun imkoniyat sifatida qarashadi. Ularning xatti-harakatlari muqarrar ravishda o'yinning obro'sini dog' qiladi va haqiqiy muxlislarning zavqini yo'qqa chiqaradi. Huquqni muhofaza qilish organlari bunday xatti-harakatlarga qarshi qattiq kurashish va futbol o'yinlariga tashrif buyurgan har bir kishining xavfsizligini ta'minlash, sportning ijobiy obro'sini saqlash va barcha uchun tajribani himoya qilish uchun doimiy ravishda ishlamoqda.

C1 Yaponiyada va Koreyada bo'lib o'tadigan kelgusi Jahon chempionatida qaysi davlatlar g'alaba uchun kurashishi aniqlanadigan dastlabki bosqichlar boshlanishi bilan futbolning global yuksalishi jadallik bilan davom etmoqda. Sportning jozibadorligi klub darajasiga ham taalluqli bo'lib, u yerda sodiq muxlislar har hafta uy va safar o'yinlariga oqin kelishadi, ularning umidlari ijobiy natijaga bog'langan. Albatta, eng ideal ssenariy - bu hujumkor, yuqori ballli o'yin, bu maqsadga yo'naltirilmagan uzatmalardan iborat himoyaviy zerikish bilan keskin farq qiladi.

Afsuski, tomosha har doim ham maydon bilan chegaralanmaydi. Ko'pincha, tartibsizliklar tribunalarning ichida sodir bo'ladi. Odatda jamoasining ranglarini kiyib, o'z sadoqatini e'lon qiladigan futbol muxlislari, odatda, bosilgan xulqi bilan tanilgan emas. Haqiqatan ham, ular tez-tez shovqinli qo'llab-quvvatlash namoyishlarida qatnashadilar, katta ishtiyoq bilan partizan qo'shiqlarini kuylashadi. Muxlislar o'rtasida odatda sog'lom raqobat mavjud bo'lsa-da, bu osongina nizolarga aylanib ketishi mumkin. Muxlislar hakamdan adolatsiz qarorlarni sezganlarida, masalan, o'z o'yinchilariga nisbatan asossiz intizomiy choralar ko'rilganda yoki raqib tomonidan qilingan qoidabuzarliklarga e'tibor berilmaganda, norozilik kuchayadi.

Futbol olomonida tartibsizliklar boshlanganida, tartibni saqlash juda qiyin bo'lishi mumkin. Stadion ma'murlari to'qnashuvlar xavfini kamaytirish uchun oldindan ko'rilgan chora sifatida raqib muxlislarni ko'pincha ajratib qo'yishadi. Biroq, stadion tashqarisida tartibsizliklarning oldini olish ancha katta logistik to'siqni keltirib chiqaradi. Eng og'ir holatlarda, tartibsizliklarga qarshi politsiyaning aralashuvi zarur bo'lib qoladi, bu vaziyatning qabih ayblovi hisoblanadi.

Futbol bilan bog'liq zo'ravonlik jihatlaridan ba'zi odamlar zavq olishlari juda achinarli. Bu o'zini futbol xuliganlari deb ataydiganlar huquqni muhofaza qilish organlari bilan to'qnashuvlarni faol ravishda izlaydilar, boshqalarni narsalarni otishga undaydilar. Ular futbolni sport musobaqasi emas, balki buzuvchi xatti-harakatlar qilish uchun bahona sifatida qabul qiladilar. Shubhasiz, ularning harakatlari sportning obro'sini bulg'aydi, muxlislarning katta qismining chinakam ishtiyoqi va fidoyiligiga soya soladi va o'yinning halolligini buzadi.

B1 THRESHOLD

Every year, more people go on holiday to other countries. But, this also means that more people have problems when they travel abroad. These problems often start at the airport.

No matter which airline you use, there are usually long queues at check-in. Then, you have to wait again at passport control before you can go to the departure lounge. Often, flights are delayed. This means your flight leaves later than planned. This happens more often with charter flights, but it can also happen with normal flights.

Sometimes, delays are because of problems with the plane, or because there are too many planes taking off and landing. In Europe, some delays are because workers like air-traffic control staff are on strike. They do this to ask for better pay or working conditions. The holiday time is often when they choose to strike.

Finally, you get to your departure gate, get on the plane, find your seat, and fasten your seat belt. The people who work on the plane, the cabin crew, will give you food and drinks. If it is not a very long flight, you will land quite soon.

When you land, you need to follow the signs to the baggage reclaim area. Here, you wait for your luggage to come on the carousel. You hope your luggage has not been lost or sent to the wrong airport. Because so many people take luggage on planes, it is common for luggage to go missing.

Luckily, this is usually only for a short time. The bags have tags on them, so the airlines can usually find them. It is a good feeling when you get your bags back! It is even better to get home. Sometimes we ask ourselves if travelling is worth the effort. But next year, we will probably be at the airport again!

More and more people seem to be jetting off abroad for their holidays each year. However, this also means that an increasing number of travellers are facing the inevitable stresses and disappointments that can come with international travel. The problems often begin at the airport, regardless of which airline you're flying with.

Especially during peak season, you're virtually guaranteed to encounter long queues at check-in, followed by further delays at passport control before you can even reach the departure lounge. Then, there's the often agonising experience of flight delays. While these are more likely with charter flights, scheduled flights are by no means immune. These delays can be caused by technical problems or the sheer volume of aircraft taking off and landing. However, in Europe, at least, some are due to industrial action by airport staff. Unfortunately, the holiday season is often a popular time for baggage handlers, air traffic controllers, or other airport employees to take industrial action.

Despite these potential setbacks, you eventually make it to the departure gate, board the plane, find your seat, and buckle up, ready for take-off. The cabin crew will probably serve you food and drinks, and unless you're on a long-haul flight, the journey will seem relatively short before you land.

Upon arrival, you need to follow the signs to the baggage reclaim area and wait by the carousel for your luggage, hoping it hasn't been mislaid or sent to the wrong destination. With the sheer amount of luggage carried on planes, it's unfortunately quite common for bags to go missing. Luckily, this is usually a temporary situation. Luggage is tagged, making it relatively easy for airlines to track it down. Still, it's always a relief to be reunited with your belongings! It's an even greater relief to arrive home safe and sound, leaving us to ponder whether the trip was worth the effort. However, next year will almost certainly find us back at the airport, ready for another adventure, come what may.

The seemingly inexorable rise in international tourism each year, while undoubtedly broadening horizons, also begets a corresponding increase in the trials and tribulations inherent in modern air travel. From the outset, the airport experience, regardless of the carrier, often proves to be a crucible of frustration. One is invariably confronted with serpentine queues at check-in, followed by the inevitable bottleneck at passport control before even reaching the relative sanctuary of the departure lounge.

Flight delays, a common bugbear of travellers, further compound the issue. While charter flights are particularly susceptible to such disruptions, scheduled services are by no means immune. These delays can stem from a multitude of factors, including unforeseen technical malfunctions or the sheer volume of air traffic navigating increasingly congested skies. However, in Europe, at least, a significant proportion can be attributed to industrial action, with the peak holiday season often serving as a strategic moment for baggage handlers, air-traffic controllers, and other airport personnel to leverage their bargaining power.

Eventually, however, one manages to navigate the labyrinthine corridors to the departure gate, board the aircraft, and locate one's designated seat, buckling up in anticipation of the imminent take-off. The cabin crew, with practised efficiency, will likely dispense refreshments, and, barring particularly long-haul journeys, the flight itself passes relatively swiftly. Upon arrival, the next hurdle presents itself: the often-agonising wait at the baggage reclaim carousel, fraught with the anxiety that one's luggage may have been inadvertently misdirected or, worse still, left behind altogether. Given the sheer volume of baggage processed daily, it is hardly surprising that instances of misplaced luggage are relatively commonplace.

Fortunately, such occurrences are generally temporary. The sophisticated tagging systems employed by airlines facilitate the tracing of individual items, and the eventual reunion with one's belongings is invariably met with considerable relief. Indeed, the ultimate arrival back home often evokes a sense of profound gratitude, prompting the perennial question of whether the entire ordeal was truly worth the candle. Yet, come what may, the allure of distant shores seems irresistible, and the following year will inevitably find us once more navigating the chaotic landscape of the airport, ready to brave the elements of modern travel.

B1 Har yili ko'proq odamlar boshqa davlatlarga ta'tilga boradilar. Ammo, bu shuni anglatadiki, ko'proq odamlar chet elga sayohat qilganda muammolarga duch kelishadi. Bu muammolar ko'pincha aeroportda boshlanadi.

Qaysi aviakompaniyadan foydalanishingizdan qat'iy nazar, ro'yxatdan o'tishda odatda uzun navbatlar bo'ladi. Keyin, jo'nash zaliga o'tishdan oldin pasport nazoratida yana kutishingiz kerak. Ko'pincha, reyslar kechikadi. Bu sizning reysingiz rejalashtirilganidan kechroq uchishini anglatadi. Bu charter reyslar bilan ko'proq sodir bo'ladi, lekin oddiy reyslar bilan ham sodir bo'lishi mumkin.

Ba'zan, kechikishlar samolyot bilan bog'liq muammolar tufayli yoki juda ko'p samolyotlar uchayotgani va qo'nayotgani sababli yuzaga keladi. Yevropada ba'zi kechikishlar havo harakatini nazorat qilish xodimlari kabi ishchilarning ish tashlashi tufayli yuzaga keladi. Ular buni yaxshiroq maosh yoki ish sharoitlarini so'rash uchun qilishadi. Ta'til vaqti ko'pincha ular ish tashlashni tanlaydigan vaqt bo'ladi.

Nihoyat, siz o'z jo'nash darvozangizga yetib borasiz, samolyotga o'tirasiz, o'z o'rningizni topasiz va xavfsizlik kamarini taqasiz. Samolyotda ishlaydigan odamlar, ekipaj sizga ovqat va ichimliklar beradi. Agar bu juda uzoq reys bo'lmasa, siz tez orada qo'nasiz.

Qo'nganingizdan so'ng, siz yuklarni qaytarib olish joyiga yo'l ko'rsatuvchi belgilarga amal qilishingiz kerak. Bu yerda siz yuklaringiz karruselga kelishini kutasiz. Sizning yuklaringiz yo'qolmagan yoki noto'g'ri aeroportga yuborilmagan deb umid qilasiz. Juda ko'p odamlar samolyotlarda yuk olib yurgani sababli, yuklarning yo'qolishi odatiy holdir.

Yaxshiyamki, bu odatda qisqa vaqtga cho'ziladi. Sumkalarda yoriqlar bor, shuning uchun aviakompaniyalar ularni odatda topa oladilar. Sumkalaringizni qaytarib olganingizda, yaxshi his-tuyg'u paydo bo'ladi! Uyga qaytish undan ham yaxshiroq. Ba'zan biz sayohat qilish harakatga arziydimi deb o'zimizdan so'raymiz. Ammo kelgusi yili biz yana aeroportda bo'lishimiz mumkin!

B2 Yildan-yilga ko'proq odamlar ta'til uchun xorijga uchib ketayotganga o'xshaydi. Biroq, bu shuni anglatadiki, xalqaro sayohat bilan kelishi mumkin bo'lgan muqarrar stress va umidsizliklarga duch kelayotgan sayohatchilar soni ham ortib bormoqda. Muammolar ko'pincha aeroportda boshlanadi, qaysi aviakompaniya bilan uchishingizdan qat'i nazar.

Ayniqsa, eng qizg'in mavsumda, ro'yxatdan o'tish joylarida uzun navbatlarga duch kelishingiz deyarli kafolatlanadi, so'ngra hatto jo'nash zaliga yetib borguningizcha pasport nazoratida qo'shimcha kechikishlar bo'ladi. Keyin, parvozning kechikishi kabi ko'pincha azobli tajriba bor. Charter reyslarda bu ehtimol ko'proq bo'lsa-da, rejalashtirilgan reyslar ham immunitetga ega emas. Bu kechikishlar texnik muammolar yoki havoga ko'tarilayotgan va qo'nayotgan samolyotlarning soni ko'pligi sabab bo'lishi mumkin. Biroq, Yevropada, hech bo'lmaganda, ba'zilari aeroport xodimlarining ish tashlashi tufayli yuzaga keladi. Afsuski, ta'til mavsumi ko'pincha yuk tashuvchilar, havo harakati nazoratchilari yoki boshqa aeroport xodimlarining ish tashlashi uchun mashhur vaqtdir.

Ushbu potentsial qiyinchiliklarga qaramay, siz oxir-oqibat jo'nash darvozasiga yetib borasiz, samolyotga chiqasiz, o'rningizni topasiz va kamarini bog'lab, havoga ko'tarilishga tayyor bo'lasiz. Kabin ekipaji sizga ovqat va ichimliklar taqdim etishi mumkin va agar siz uzoq masofali reysda bo'lmasangiz, qo'nguncha sayohat nisbatan qisqa bo'lib tuyuladi.

Kelgandan so'ng, siz yukni qaytarib olish joyiga ishoralar bo'yicha borishingiz va o'z yukingiz uchun karusel yonida kutishingiz kerak, u yo'qolmagan yoki noto'g'ri manzilga yuborilmagan bo'lishiga umid qilasiz. Samolyotlarda olib ketiladigan yuklarning soni ko'pligi sababli, yuklarning yo'qolishi afsuski juda keng tarqalgan. Yaxshiyamki, bu odatda vaqtinchalik holat. Yuklar teg bilan belgilanadi, bu aviakompaniyalarga uni topishni nisbatan osonlashtiradi. Shunga qaramay, o'z narsalaringiz bilan qayta uchrashish har doim xursandchilik keltiradi! Uyga sog'-salomat kelish yanada katta xursandchilik, bu bizni sayohatga arziydimi yoki yo'qmi deb o'ylashga majbur qiladi. Biroq, kelasi yili bizni deyarli albatta aeroportda yana bir sarguzashtga tayyor holda topamiz, nima bo'lishidan qat'i nazar.

C1 Har yili xalqaro turizmning tobora o'sib borishi, shubhasiz, ufqni kengaytirsa-da, zamonaviy havo transportida mavjud bo'lgan muammolar va sinovlarning ham shunga mos ravishda ko'payishiga sabab bo'ladi. Dastlab, aeroportdagi tajriba, aviakompaniyaning qaysi ekanligidan qat'i nazar, ko'pincha umidsizlik o'chog'i bo'lib chiqadi. Doimo ro'yxatdan o'tishda ilon izi kabi navbatlarga duch kelasiz, so'ngra parvoz zalining nisbiy panohiga yetib borguncha pasport nazoratida to'xtab qolish muqarrar.

Parvozning kechikishi, sayohatchilarning umumiy dardidir, bu muammoni yanada og'irlashtiradi. Charter reyslari bunday uzilishlarga ayniqsa moyil bo'lsa-da, rejalashtirilgan reyslar ham bundan mustasno emas. Bu kechikishlar ko'plab omillarga bog'liq bo'lishi mumkin, jumladan, kutilmagan texnik nosozliklar yoki tobora gavjum osmonda harakatlanayotgan havo transportining haddan tashqari ko'pligi. Biroq, Yevropada, hech bo'lmaganda, sezilarli qismi sanoat harakatlari bilan bog'liq bo'lishi mumkin, bunda eng yuqori ta'til mavsumi ko'pincha yuk tashuvchilar, havo harakatini boshqaruvchilar va boshqa aeroport xodimlari uchun o'z savdolashish imkoniyatlaridan foydalanish uchun strategik vaqt bo'lib xizmat qiladi.

Oxir-oqibat, odam labirint koridorlaridan parvoz darvozasiga o'tib, samolyotga chiqib, o'z joyini topadi va yaqinlashib kelayotgan parvozni kutib, xavfsizlik kamarini taqadi. Salon ekipaji tajribali samaradorlik bilan ichimliklar tarqatadi va uzoq masofali reyslardan tashqari, parvozning o'zi nisbatan tez o'tadi. Yetib kelgandan so'ng, keyingi to'siq paydo bo'ladi: yukni qaytarish karuselida ko'pincha azobli kutish, yukingiz tasodifan noto'g'ri yo'naltirilgan yoki undan ham yomoni, umuman qoldirilgan degan tashvish bilan to'la. Har kuni qayta ishlanadigan yuklarning hajmini hisobga olsak, yo'qolgan yuklarning holatlari nisbatan keng tarqalgani ajablanarli emas.

Yaxshiyamki, bunday holatlar odatda vaqtinchalik bo'ladi. Aviakompaniyalar tomonidan qo'llaniladigan murakkab teglash tizimlari alohida narsalarni kuzatishni osonlashtiradi va o'z narsalari bilan oxirgi qayta uchrashuv doimo katta yengillik bilan kutib olinadi. Haqiqatan ham, uyga oxirgi yetib kelish ko'pincha chuqur minnatdorchilik hissini uyg'otadi va butun azob chindan ham arzirdimi degan doimiy savolni keltirib chiqaradi. Ammo, nima bo'lishidan qat'i nazar, uzoq qirg'oqlarning jozibasi qarshilik ko'rsatib bo'lmaydigan tuyuladi va kelgusi yilda biz yana aeroportning tartibsiz manzarasida harakatlanamiz, zamonaviy sayohatning qiyinchiliklariga bardosh berishga tayyormiz.

B1 THRESHOLD

A professor in Japan has found evidence that computer games can be bad for children. Many parents and grandparents have said this for a long time. But people often didn't listen to them because they thought they didn't understand technology.

Parents often worry about how computer games affect their children's health and social skills. They think children should play outside, get exercise, and have fun with friends. But many children play games alone. This means they don't interact with other people very much. As a result, they might not be good at talking to others and communicating their needs.

Parents are also concerned that the violent games might make their children more aggressive. They also worry about violence on TV. Some parents think that computer games are making young people less intelligent. They believe that children play games instead of reading or doing homework. So, the games can have a bad effect on their learning and education.

Parents are also worried that computer games stop children from using their imagination. They spend too much time looking at a screen instead of drawing or writing stories. Professor Ryuta Kawashima from Tohoku University also thinks computer games are bad, but for scientific reasons.

He used new technology to do research. He thinks his research shows that computer games can stop children's brains from growing properly. He used brain scans to show that playing computer games only makes some parts of the brain active. These parts control seeing and moving. The parts of the brain that help with learning, memory, emotions, and self-control don't grow as much.

If children can't control their behaviour very well, they might become violent. It seems that Professor Kawashima's research shows that parents are right to be worried about computer games. Parents should pay attention to the time their children spend playing video games and encourage other activities.

A recent study by a Japanese professor has unearthed evidence suggesting that computer games might negatively impact children. While many parents and grandparents have voiced similar concerns for years, they've often been dismissed as technologically resistant. These worries often revolve around the potential effects on children's physical health and social development.

Parents often feel that children should be outdoors, exercising and socialising with friends. Instead, many children play alone, leading to social isolation and limited opportunities for interaction, which can hinder their communication skills. There's also the concern that the violent content in many games could desensitise children to violence and potentially lead to more aggressive behaviour, a fear also associated with exposure to violent content on television.

Moreover, some worry that the pervasiveness of computer games contributes to a general decline in the complexity and depth of information that young people engage with. Because children may choose gaming over reading or homework, these games are thought to impede their academic progress. Parents are also concerned that excessive screen time might stifle creativity, preventing children from engaging in activities like drawing or writing.

Professor Ryuta Kawashima from Tohoku University shares these concerns about the potential adverse effects of computer games, but his research offers a more scientific perspective. Using advanced technology, his research aims to demonstrate that computer games may impair brain development in children.

His brain scans indicate that gaming primarily stimulates areas of the brain related to vision and movement. Crucially, the frontal lobes, which are instrumental in learning, memory, emotional regulation, and self-control, show signs of underdevelopment. If children's ability to control their behaviour is indeed being compromised, they might be more prone to aggressive outbursts. Professor Kawashima's research seems to substantiate parental fears about the potential downsides of computer games.

C1 ADVANCED

For years, anxieties surrounding the potential deleterious effects of computer games on children have been largely dismissed as the knee-jerk reactions of a generation unfamiliar with technology. However, a recent study conducted by a Japanese professor lends credence to these long-held concerns. The unease expressed by parents and grandparents often revolves around two key areas: the potential detriment to children's physical and social well-being. There's a prevailing sentiment that children should be outdoors, engaging in physical activity and cultivating interpersonal relationships, rather than leading increasingly isolated lives glued to screens. This sedentary lifestyle, coupled with limited face-to-face interaction, may impede the development of crucial communication skills.

Moreover, apprehensions persist regarding the desensitizing effect of violent video games, with parents fearing that exposure to such content may incline children towards aggressive behaviour. This concern mirrors anxieties surrounding the depiction of brutality on television. Furthermore, some commentators argue that the pervasive popularity of computer games has contributed to a dumbing down of educational content. The perceived trade-off between screen time and academic pursuits, such as reading and homework, has fueled anxieties about the negative impact on children's intellectual development. The concern also extends to the potential stifling of creativity, with parents fearing that excessive screen time may preclude children from engaging in activities that foster imagination, such as drawing or creative writing.

Professor Ryuta Kawashima of Tohoku University, however, approaches these concerns from a distinctly scientific perspective. His research, utilizing cutting-edge neuroimaging technology, suggests that computer games may indeed impair the holistic development of children's brains. Specifically, brain scans have revealed that gaming primarily stimulates the areas associated with visual processing and motor control, while the frontal lobes – responsible for higher-order cognitive functions such as learning, memory, emotional regulation, and self-control – remain relatively dormant. This selective stimulation raises concerns about potential imbalances in brain development.

The implications of underdeveloped frontal lobes are far-reaching, particularly in relation to behavioural control. If the capacity for self-regulation is compromised, children may be more susceptible to impulsive and potentially aggressive behaviour. Professor Kawashima's findings, therefore, appear to corroborate parental anxieties, suggesting that the potential negative consequences of excessive computer game usage may be more profound than previously acknowledged. Further research is undoubtedly needed to fully elucidate the complex interplay between gaming and child development and to devise strategies for mitigating potential harm, but this study serves as a wake-up call for parents and educators alike.

B1 Yaponiyalik professor kompyuter o'yinlari bolalar uchun yomon bo'lishi mumkinligi haqida dalillar topdi. Ko'plab ota-onalar va buvi-buvalar buni uzoq vaqtdan beri aytib kelishgan. Ammo odamlar ko'pincha ularga quloq solishmadi, chunki ular texnologiyani tushunmaydi deb o'ylashdi.

Ota-onalar ko'pincha kompyuter o'yinlari bolalar salomatligiga va ijtimoiy ko'nikmalariga qanday ta'sir qilishi haqida xavotirlanishadi. Ular bolalar tashqarida o'ynashi, jismoniy mashqlar qilishi va do'stlari bilan vaqt o'tkazishi kerak deb o'ylashadi. Ammo ko'plab bolalar yolg'iz o'yin o'ynashadi. Bu ularning boshqa odamlar bilan unchalik muloqot qilmasligini anglatadi. Natijada, ular boshqalar bilan gaplasha olmasligi va o'z ehtiyojlarini ifoda eta olmasligi mumkin.

Ota-onalar, shuningdek, zo'ravonlik o'yinlari bolalarini yanada tajovuzkor qilib qo'yishidan xavotirda. Ular televizordagi zo'ravonlik haqida ham xavotirlanishadi. Ba'zi ota-onalar kompyuter o'yinlari yoshlarni kamroq aqlli qilib qo'yapti deb o'ylashadi. Ular bolalar kitob o'qish yoki uy vazifasini bajarish o'rniga o'yin o'ynaydi deb hisoblashadi. Shunday qilib, o'yinlar ularning o'qishi va ta'limiga yomon ta'sir qilishi mumkin.

Ota-onalar, shuningdek, kompyuter o'yinlari bolalarning tasavvurini ishlatishiga to'sqinlik qiladi deb xavotirlanishadi. Ular rasm chizish yoki hikoyalar yozish o'rniga ko'p vaqtni ekranga qarab o'tkazishadi. Tohoku universitetining professori Ryuta Kawashima ham kompyuter o'yinlari yomon deb o'ylaydi, ammo ilmiy sabablarga ko'ra.

U tadqiqot o'tkazish uchun yangi texnologiyadan foydalangan. Uning fikricha, uning tadqiqoti kompyuter o'yinlari bolalar miyasining to'g'ri rivojlanishiga to'sqinlik qilishi mumkinligini ko'rsatadi. U kompyuter o'yinlari faqat miyaning ba'zi qismlarini faol qiladi, deb ko'rsatish uchun miya skanerlaridan foydalangan. Ushbu qismlar ko'rish va harakatlanishni nazorat qiladi. O'rganish, xotira, hissiyotlar va o'zini tutishga yordam beradigan miya qismlari unchalik o'smaydi.

Agar bolalar o'z xulq-atvorini yaxshi nazorat qila olmasa, ular zo'ravon bo'lib qolishi mumkin. Ko'rinishidan, professor Kawashimaning tadqiqoti ota-onalarning kompyuter o'yinlari haqida xavotirlanishga haqli ekanligini ko'rsatadi. Ota-onalar bolalarining video o'yinlar o'ynashga sarflagan vaqtiga e'tibor berishi va boshqa faoliyatlarni rag'batlantirishi kerak.

B2 Yaponiyalik professorning yaqinda o'tkazgan tadqiqoti shuni ko'rsatadiki, kompyuter o'yinlari bolalarga salbiy ta'sir ko'rsatishi mumkin. Ko'plab ota-onalar va buvi-buvalar yillar davomida shunga o'xshash xavotirlarini bildirgan bo'lsalar ham, ular ko'pincha texnologiyaga qarshi deb hisoblanib, e'tiborga olinmagan. Bu xavotirlar ko'pincha bolalarning jismoniy salomatligi va ijtimoiy rivojlanishiga ta'siri bilan bog'liq.

Ota-onalar ko'pincha bolalar tashqarida, mashq qilib, do'stlari bilan muloqotda bo'lishi kerak deb hisoblashadi. Aksincha, ko'plab bolalar yolg'iz o'ynashadi, bu esa ijtimoiy izolyatsiyaga va muloqot qilish imkoniyatlarining cheklanishiga olib keladi, bu esa ularning muloqot qobiliyatiga to'sqinlik qilishi mumkin. Shuningdek, ko'plab o'yinlardagi zo'ravonlik mazmuni bolalarni zo'ravonlikka nisbatan sezgirligini yo'qotishi va ehtimol, yanada tajovuzkor xatti-harakatga olib kelishi mumkin degan xavotir ham bor, bu xavotir televizordagi zo'ravonlik mazmuniga ta'sir qilish bilan ham bog'liq.

Bundan tashqari, ba'zilar kompyuter o'yinlarining keng tarqalishi yoshlarning qabul qiladigan ma'lumotlarining murakkabligi va chuqurligining umumiy pasayishiga hissa qo'shadi deb xavotirlanishadi. Bolalar o'qish yoki uy vazifalarini bajarish o'rniga o'yin o'ynashni tanlashi mumkinligi sababli, bu o'yinlar ularning akademik muvaffaqiyatiga to'sqinlik qiladi deb hisoblanadi. Ota-onalar, shuningdek, haddan tashqari ekran vaqti ijodkorlikni bo'g'ishi, bolalarni rasm chizish yoki yozish kabi faoliyat bilan shug'ullanishiga to'sqinlik qilishi mumkin deb xavotirlanishadi.

Tohoku universitetidan professor Ryuta Kavashima kompyuter o'yinlarining potentsial salbiy ta'siri haqida ham xavotirlanadi, ammo uning tadqiqotlari yanada ilmiy nuqtai nazarni taklif qiladi. Ilg'or texnologiyalardan foydalangan holda, uning tadqiqoti kompyuter o'yinlari bolalarda miya rivojlanishiga zarar etkazishi mumkinligini ko'rsatishga qaratilgan.

Uning miya skanerlari shuni ko'rsatadiki, o'yin asosan miyaning ko'rish va harakat bilan bog'liq sohalarini rag'batlantiradi. Eng muhimi, o'rganish, xotira, hissiy tartibga solish va o'zini tuta bilishda muhim rol o'ynaydigan frontal bo'laklar rivojlanmaganlik belgilarini ko'rsatadi. Agar bolalarning o'z xatti-harakatlarini nazorat qilish qobiliyati haqiqatan ham buzilayotgan bo'lsa, ular tajovuzkor xurujlarga ko'proq moyil bo'lishi mumkin. Professor Kavashimaning tadqiqoti kompyuter o'yinlarining potentsial kamchiliklari haqida ota-onalarning xavotirlarini tasdiqlaydi.

C1 Kompyuter o'yinlarining bolalarga salbiy ta'siri haqidagi xavotirlar ko'p yillar davomida texnologiyani yaxshi bilmaydigan avlodning shoshilinch reaksiyalari sifatida rad etib kelingan edi. Biroq, yaqinda yapon professori tomonidan o'tkazilgan tadqiqot bu uzoq yillik xavotirlarga ishonch bag'ishlaydi. Ota-onalar va buvilarning tashvishlari ko'pincha ikki asosiy sohaga qaratilgan: bolalarning jismoniy va ijtimoiy farovonligiga potentsial zarar. Bolalar ko'chada bo'lishi, jismoniy faollik bilan shug'ullanishi va shaxslararo munosabatlarni rivojlantirishi, ekranlarga mixlanib, tobora yakkalanib qolishmasligi kerak degan fikr ustunlik qiladi. Bunday harakatsiz turmush tarzi, yuzma-yuz muloqotning cheklanganligi bilan birgalikda muhim kommunikatsiya ko'nikmalarining rivojlanishiga to'sqinlik qilishi mumkin.

Bundan tashqari, zo'ravonlik kompyuter o'yinlarining sezgirlikni yo'qotuvchi ta'siri bilan bog'liq xavotirlar saqlanib qolmoqda, ota-onalar bunday kontentga ta'sir qilish bolalarni tajovuzkor xatti-harakatga undashi mumkinligidan xavotirda. Bu xavotir televideniedagi shafqatsizlik tasvirlari bilan bog'liq tashvishlarni aks ettiradi. Bundan tashqari, ba'zi sharhlovchilarning ta'kidlashicha, kompyuter o'yinlarining keng tarqalgan mashhurligi ta'lim mazmunining sodda bo'lib ketishiga hissa qo'shgan. Ekran vaqti va o'qish va uy vazifasi kabi akademik mashg'ulotlar o'rtasidagi taxminiy almashinuv bolalarning intellektual rivojlanishiga salbiy ta'siri haqidagi xavotirlarni kuchaytirdi. Xavotir, shuningdek, ijodkorlikning potentsial bo'g'ilishiga ham taalluqli, ota-onalar haddan tashqari ekran vaqti bolalarni rasm chizish yoki ijodiy yozish kabi tasavvurni rivojlantiradigan faoliyat bilan shug'ullanishiga to'sqinlik qilishi mumkinligidan xavotirda.

Tohoku universitetining professori Ryuta Kawashima, bu xavotirlarga aniq ilmiy nuqtai nazardan yondashadi. Uning zamonaviy neyro-tasvir texnologiyasidan foydalangan holdagi tadqiqotlari shuni ko'rsatadiki, kompyuter o'yinlari bolalar miyasining yaxlit rivojlanishiga haqiqatan ham zarar yetkazishi mumkin. Xususan, miya skanerlari o'yin asosan vizual qayta ishlash va motor nazorati bilan bog'liq bo'lgan sohalarni rag'batlantirishini, frontal loblar esa - o'rganish, xotira, hissiy tartibga solish va o'zini tuta bilish kabi yuqori darajadagi kognitiv funktsiyalar uchun mas'ul bo'lgan - nisbatan uyquda qolishini aniqladi. Bunday tanlab rag'batlantirish miyaning rivojlanishidagi potentsial nomutanosibliklar haqida xavotirlarni uyg'otadi.

Rivojlanmagan frontal loblarning oqibatlari, ayniqsa xatti-harakatlarni nazorat qilish bilan bog'liq holda, juda kengdir. Agar o'zini o'zi tartibga solish qobiliyati buzilgan bo'lsa, bolalar impulsiv va potentsial tajovuzkor xatti-harakatlarga ko'proq moyil bo'lishi mumkin. Shuning uchun professor Kawashimaning topilmalari ota-onalarning xavotirlarini tasdiqlaydi, bu esa kompyuter o'yinlaridan haddan tashqari foydalanishning potentsial salbiy oqibatlari avvalgi e'tirof etilganidan ko'ra chuqurroq bo'lishi mumkinligini ko'rsatadi. O'yin va bola rivojlanishi o'rtasidagi murakkab o'zaro ta'sirni to'liq aniqlash va potentsial zararni kamaytirish strategiyalarini ishlab chiqish uchun qo'shimcha tadqiqotlar, shubhasiz, zarur, ammo bu tadqiqot ota-onalar va o'qituvchilar uchun ogohlantiruvchi qo'ng'iroq vazifasini o'taydi.

B1 THRESHOLD

The world was very shocked by the terrible things that terrorists did in the United States. Many leaders around the world said these actions were very bad. They think terrorism is a danger to democracy and a very bad crime against the United States.

Terrorists often do these things to get attention for what they believe in. The terrorists who crashed planes into the World Trade Center in New York definitely got a lot of attention. The second plane attack was even shown on TV news around the world.

Terrorist groups usually admit they did the violent things to get attention. But after the attack in America, no group wanted to say they did it. Also, terrorists often give a warning before they attack civilians. This did not happen in New York, and many innocent people died.

The United States spends a lot of money on defence and intelligence. But the attack was a complete surprise. Many Americans thought their country was too strong to be attacked. They were very shocked that terrorists could threaten their safety in this way.

There are many different terrorist groups in the world. They all have different reasons for what they do. Some feel there is political injustice. Others are driven by their religious beliefs, or they simply hate the people they attack. They are often like an invisible enemy, using secret ways to do brutal things, and then they disappear.

The most difficult terrorists to deal with are those who are ready to die for what they believe in. They hate the people they attack so much that they are ready to commit suicide, as long as they hurt the enemy.

World leaders now understand that many problems are global. Stopping terrorism is one of the most important things to do.

B2 VANTAGE

The world was horrified by the terrible acts of terrorism in the United States. These actions have been rightly condemned by leaders worldwide, who see such terrorist activities as a serious threat to democracy and a grave crime against the American people.

Terrorist acts are often deliberately designed to gain maximum publicity for the cause the terrorists support. The terrorists who crashed planes into the World Trade Center in New York certainly achieved widespread attention. The second plane attack was even broadcast live on television news channels around the globe, capturing the moment of impact.

The desire to publicise their aims usually leads terrorist groups to claim responsibility for acts of violence. However, immediately after the attack on America, no group stepped forward to take responsibility. Also, terrorist attacks on civilian targets often include some kind of warning. This was not the case in New York, and thousands of innocent people lost their lives.

The United States invests heavily in defence and intelligence. Yet, the country was completely taken by surprise by this attack. Many Americans had believed their powerful nation was invulnerable and were deeply shocked that terrorists could breach their security in such a way.

There are many different terrorist groups around the world, each driven by different motivations. These might include a feeling of political injustice, religious zeal, or simply hatred for those they attack. They are often a hidden enemy, using secrecy to commit brutal acts, and then disappearing without a trace.

The most difficult terrorists to deal with are those who are prepared to die for their cause. Their fanatical hatred of their targets means they are willing to commit suicide to inflict casualties on the enemy. World leaders now understand the global nature of many modern issues. The need to eliminate terrorism is, without doubt, one of the most important.

C1 ADVANCED

The unconscionable acts perpetrated by terrorists on United States soil sent shockwaves across the globe. The international community has been unanimous in its condemnation, recognising these atrocities as not only a heinous assault on the American people, but also a profound threat to the very foundations of democracy. Indeed, terrorist acts are often calculated, at least in part, to garner maximum exposure for the ideological cause the perpetrators champion.

The terrorists responsible for the attacks on the World Trade Center in New York undeniably achieved this objective; the second plane's impact was even broadcast live, a spectacle witnessed by millions worldwide. However, the immediate aftermath of the attacks presented an anomaly. Contrary to standard practice, where terrorist groups typically claim responsibility to amplify their message, a conspicuous silence prevailed. Furthermore, the absence of any prior warning, a feature often associated with attacks on civilian targets, compounded the tragedy, resulting in an unprecedented loss of innocent life.

That a nation as powerful and technologically advanced as the United States, a country that invests heavily in defence and intelligence, could be caught so completely off guard was a source of profound disbelief. The attacks shattered the prevailing sense of American invulnerability, exposing a vulnerability that many had deemed inconceivable. The sheer audacity of the attacks served as a rude awakening.

The motivations underpinning terrorist activity are as diverse as the groups themselves. These can stem from perceived political injustices, religious extremism, or simply a deep-seated animosity towards the targeted population. Terrorists often operate as an insidious and elusive enemy, exploiting stealth and secrecy to commit their brutal acts before melting back into the shadows. This makes them exceptionally difficult to counteract.

Perhaps the most daunting challenge lies in confronting those terrorists who demonstrate a willingness to embrace martyrdom for their cause. Driven by a fanatical hatred, they are prepared to sacrifice their own lives, provided they can inflict significant casualties on their perceived enemy. The international community now fully appreciates the transnational nature of contemporary challenges, and the imperative to eradicate terrorism stands as one of the most pressing priorities on the global agenda. To that end, international cooperation must be bolstered to prevent future attacks and dismantle terrorist networks at their roots. The far-reaching consequences of inaction are simply too great to contemplate.

UZ TARJIMA

B1 Dunyo terrorchilarning Qo'shma Shtatlarda qilgan dahshatli ishlaridan juda hayratda qoldi. Dunyo bo'ylab ko'plab rahbarlar bu harakatlar juda yomon ekanligini aytdi. Ular terrorizm demokratiya uchun xavf va Qo'shma Shtatlarga qarshi juda yomon jinoyat deb hisoblashadi.

Terrorchilar ko'pincha o'z e'tiqodlariga e'tibor qaratish uchun shunday ishlarni qiladilar. Nyu-Yorkdagi Jahon Savdo Markaziga samolyotlarni urib tushirgan terrorchilar albatta katta e'tibor qozondi. Hatto ikkinchi samolyot hujumi butun dunyo bo'ylab telekanallarda namoyish etildi.

Terroristik guruhlar odatda e'tibor qozonish uchun zo'ravonlik ishlarini qilganliklarini tan oladilar. Ammo Amerikadagi hujumdan so'ng, hech bir guruh buni qilganini aytishni xohlamadi. Shuningdek, terrorchilar ko'pincha fuqarolarga hujum qilishdan oldin ogohlantirish beradilar. Nyu-Yorkda bu sodir bo'lmadi va ko'plab begunoh odamlar halok bo'ldi.

Qo'shma Shtatlar mudofaa va razvedkaga juda ko'p pul sarflaydi. Ammo hujum butunlay kutilmagan bo'ldi. Ko'pgina amerikaliklar o'z mamlakati hujumga uchray olmaydigan darajada kuchli deb o'ylashardi. Terrorchilar ularning xavfsizligiga shu tarzda tahdid solishi mumkinligidan ular juda hayratda qolishdi.

Dunyoda turli xil terrorchilik guruhlari mavjud. Ularning barchasi o'z qilayotgan ishlariga turli xil sabablarga ega. Ba'zilar siyosiy adolatsizlik bor deb hisoblaydi. Boshqalarni o'z diniy e'tiqodlari boshqaradi yoki ular shunchaki hujum qiladigan odamlarni yomon ko'radilar. Ular ko'pincha ko'rinmas dushman kabi, shafqatsiz ishlarni qilish uchun maxfiy usullardan foydalanadilar va keyin g'oyib bo'lishadi.

Eng qiyin terrorchilar - bu o'z e'tiqodi uchun o'lishga tayyor bo'lganlardir. Ular hujum qiladigan odamlarni shunchalik yomon ko'rishadiki, dushmanga zarar yetkazishsa bo'ldi, o'z joniga qasd qilishga ham tayyor.

Dunyo rahbarlari endi ko'plab muammolar global ekanligini tushunishdi. Terrorizmni to'xtatish - eng muhim ishlardan biri.

B2 Dunyo Qo'shma Shtatlarda sodir etilgan dahshatli terrorchilik harakatlaridan dahshatga tushdi. Bu harakatlar butun dunyo bo'ylab yetakchilar tomonidan haqli ravishda qoralandi, ular bunday terrorchilik faoliyatini demokratiyaga jiddiy tahdid va Amerika xalqiga qarshi og'ir jinoyat sifatida baholaydilar.

Terrorchilik harakatlari ko'pincha terrorchilar qo'llab-quvvatlaydigan maqsad uchun maksimal darajada ommaviylikni ta'minlashga qaratilgan. Nyu-Yorkdagi Jahon Savdo Markaziga samolyotlarni urib tushirgan terrorchilar, albatta, keng e'tiborga sazovor bo'lishdi. Hatto ikkinchi samolyot hujumi butun dunyo bo'ylab televizion yangiliklar kanallarida jonli efirda namoyish etilib, zarba momenti aks ettirildi.

O'z maqsadlarini e'lon qilish istagi odatda terrorchilik guruhlarini zo'ravonlik harakatlari uchun javobgarlikni o'z zimmasiga olishga undaydi. Biroq, Amerikaga qilingan hujumdan so'ng darhol hech qanday guruh javobgarlikni o'z zimmasiga olish uchun oldinga chiqmadi. Shuningdek, tinch aholi nishonlariga qilingan terrorchilik hujumlari ko'pincha qandaydir ogohlantirishni o'z ichiga oladi. Nyu-Yorkda esa bunday bo'lmadi va minglab begunoh odamlar hayotdan ko'z yumdilar.

Qo'shma Shtatlar mudofaa va razvedkaga katta sarmoya kiritadi. Shunga qaramay, mamlakat bu hujumdan butunlay hayratda qoldi. Ko'pgina amerikaliklar o'zlarining qudratli davlatlari daxlsiz deb hisoblagan edilar va terrorchilar bunday yo'l bilan o'z xavfsizliklarini buzishi mumkinligidan chuqur hayratda qolishdi.

Dunyo bo'ylab turli xil terrorchilik guruhlari mavjud, ularning har biri turli xil motivlar bilan boshqariladi. Bularga siyosiy adolatsizlik hissi, diniy g'ayrat yoki shunchaki o'zlarining nishonlariga nisbatan nafrat kirishi mumkin. Ular ko'pincha yashirin dushman bo'lib, shafqatsiz harakatlarni sodir etish uchun maxfiylikdan foydalanadilar va keyin izsiz g'oyib bo'ladilar.

Eng qiyin terrorchilar - bu o'z maqsadlari uchun o'lishga tayyor bo'lganlardir. Ularning nishonlariga nisbatan fanatik nafrati dushmanga talafot yetkazish uchun o'z joniga qasd qilishga tayyor ekanliklarini anglatadi. Dunyo yetakchilari hozirgi zamonaviy masalalarning global xarakterini tushunishadi. Terrorizmni yo'q qilish zarurati, shubhasiz, eng muhimlaridan biridir.

C1 Terrorchilarning Amerika Qo'shma Shtatlari hududida sodir etgan vijdonni larzaga soluvchi harakatlari butun dunyoga dahshat solgan to'lqinlar yubordi. Xalqaro hamjamiyat bu vahshiyliklarni nafaqat Amerika xalqiga nisbatan qilingan jirkanch hujum, balki demokratiya asoslariga chuqur tahdid sifatida e'tirof etib, bir ovozdan qoraladi. Haqiqatan ham, terrorchilik harakatlari ko'pincha, hech bo'lmaganda qisman, jinoyatchilar himoya qilayotgan mafkuraviy g'oyaga maksimal darajada e'tibor qaratish uchun hisoblab chiqiladi.

Nyu-Yorkdagi Jahon savdo markaziga qilingan hujumlar uchun mas'ul bo'lgan terrorchilar bu maqsadga shubhasiz erishdilar; ikkinchi samolyotning urilishi hatto jonli efirda namoyish etildi, bu tomoshani butun dunyo bo'ylab millionlab odamlar ko'rdi. Biroq, hujumlardan keyingi darhol yuzaga kelgan holat g'ayrioddiy edi. Terrorchilik guruhlari odatda o'z xabarlarini kuchaytirish uchun javobgarlikni o'z zimmasiga olish amaliyotidan farqli o'laroq, sezilarli sukut saqlanib qoldi. Bundan tashqari, tinch aholiga qilingan hujumlar bilan bog'liq bo'lgan oldindan ogohlantirishning yo'qligi fojiani yanada og'irlashtirdi va natijada begunoh odamlarning misli ko'rilmagan yo'qotilishiga olib keldi.

AQSh kabi qudratli va texnologik jihatdan rivojlangan davlat, mudofaa va razvedkaga katta sarmoya kiritadigan mamlakatning bunday butunlay ogoh bo'lmay qolishi chuqur ishonchsizlik manbai edi. Hujumlar Amerika daxlsizligi haqidagi hukmron tuyg'uni yo'q qilib, ko'pchilik tasavvur qilib bo'lmaydigan zaiflikni ochib berdi. Hujumlarning o'ta jur'atliligi qo'pol uyg'onish bo'ldi.

Terrorchilik faoliyatini qo'llab-quvvatlovchi motivlar guruhlarning o'zi kabi xilma-xildir. Ular kelib chiqishi mumkin bo'lgan siyosiy adolatsizliklar, diniy ekstremizm yoki shunchaki nishonga olingan aholiga nisbatan chuqur adovat bo'lishi mumkin. Terrorchilar ko'pincha yashirin va sirli dushman sifatida harakat qilib, shafqatsiz harakatlarini sodir etish uchun yashirinlik va maxfiylikdan foydalanadilar va keyin soyalarga qaytib ketadilar. Bu ularga qarshi kurashishni juda qiyinlashtiradi.

Ehtimol, eng qiyin muammo - o'z maqsadlari uchun shahidlikni qabul qilishga tayyor bo'lgan terrorchilarga qarshi turishdir. Fanatik nafrat bilan harakat qilib, ular o'z jonlarini qurbon qilishga tayyor, agar ular o'zlarining dushman deb hisoblaganlariga katta talofat yetkaza olsalar. Xalqaro hamjamiyat hozirgi zamonaviy muammolarning transmilliy xususiyatini to'liq anglab yetdi va terrorizmni yo'q qilish global kun tartibidagi eng dolzarb vazifalardan biri hisoblanadi. Shu maqsadda, kelajakdagi hujumlarning oldini olish va terrorchilik tarmoqlarini ildizidan yo'q qilish uchun xalqaro hamkorlikni kuchaytirish kerak. Harakatsizlikning keng ko'lamli oqibatlari haqida o'ylashning o'zi juda dahshatli.
